Blood & Honour Rocking for the 9%

For those who wrote us off when we cleansed our movement of Government agents and State run groups, our growth is becoming alarming. 2003 saw all goals and objectives successfully met and all ready in the first quarter of 2004, the musical resistance network is confounding and infuriating all our enemies wherever they may dwell. A massive thanks and hail to all that have stood true to Blood & Honour!

January, February, March and April have all seen well-attended concerts, each one in a different sector of the capital, other concerts have continued unhindered all over our nation, in the past few years the growth of our movement has been slow but steady and the musical resistance network GB has been building in a positive manner, now the results are coming to fruition and were hitting the growth spurt.

We have another group of comrades who have earned the honour of being our newest division in the Midlands, H Division a newly founded M.C. bearing our name and another section well on its way to meeting divisional requirements down South, each new division opens another area of our country to us and gives more the opportunity to open their eyes and take part in our activities, some will just enjoy the music and social aspect and some will begin a more political path, all supporters have an important roll to play, no one is above anyone else, no matter what you do.

We now have a multitude of top rate venues who are willing to put our events on, some are actively encouraging us to use their venues as it is now known we bring a good crowd of punters for them, our own top rate security, and cause very few problems, unless defending ourselves and as all know woe betide anyone who actually has the bottle to attack us and not just gob off. Our people are proud Nationalists and NS who act with dignity and respect. It may well be that our spending power is talking to these people more than our ideology, but it is our movement which is benefiting the most. Hopefully in the not to distant future the venues we play will be in our hands.

All over the nation new bands are cropping up and more are looking for musicians (if anyone's interested, contact can be made through the main bm box), our bands are literally queuing for the chance to play at gigs! A friendly bit of competition is healthy and good for quality. Teenagers fresh from school man some of the new bands! and many of the newer outfits come from different musical genres than old school RAC, all of which just goes for a bright future and enhanced pulling power.

Blood & Honour the musical resistance network is growing and moving well but more importantly so is the amount of aid we are giving to the Nationalist/NS cause in GB, people from our ranks are politically active all over our nation, some are getting ready to stand as electoral candidates in the June elections, we wish them luck and all our support, because we are entering one of the most important times in our history and if we don't all act now our nation is going to drown, at no other time have we been in a position to actually do something about the state of our great nation, a state which has led to most of us taking the path we have. For those of us out on the streets it is obvious by the reaction of Joe public our nation is certainly awaking to the peril that has steadily been growing since the first boatload in the sixties and the open door policy on May 10th!

Since the I.S.D. last September each concert has held whip rounds for the political fund in June, the response has been awesome and the donations handed over so far mean B&H has already played a major part in helping the cause, everyone who has attended and contributed deserves praise and a pat on the back, but this is only the beginning. Donations to the families and prisoners our movement supports have not been affected and have continued.

In London where no council elections are taking place supporters are travelling weekly to leaflet and paper sale in other areas outside Greater London while still leafleting for the Euro Elections, one entire division has been out leafleting and supporting a candidate in their local area who is of a different nationalist party to the one they re aligned to. Actions like these where our people are putting forward their nation before party differences are the actions of people who are going to change things. So let's all get out there in the short time left and make the difference because each one of us can! There's a multitude of Nationalist parties fighting these elections, and there are so many ways to help them. Everyone can do something.

Voting is up to you, each party has its merits and faults, but vote wisely and above all vote whether sun, rain or snow and give our nation and people a chance. Good luck for all our sakes!

All for the 9% this indicates the percentage of the white European peoples within the world's population as a whole. This sounds incredible but it's true and this figure is diminishing!

We are the white rock n roll resistance

Avalon

It was great to catch Avalon at the recent London gig, with new line up and location base, how did things go?

It was great to be back & in my opinion I've perhaps stayed away a little too long. The concert you mentioned went very well although we only played a short set to a small crowd of close friends.

How do you find living in the London area to Coventry?

A totally different way of life & to be honest at times it's been a struggle to adapt to the surroundings. For instance, people down here go out of their ways to be accommodating to many different ethnic breeds yet I get slagged off for being Northern Scum, very strange.

Could you introduce us to the new line up?

My pleasure, the brand new line up consists of Kev & Andy on guitars & the dynamic Andy of Conquest & Warlord on drums. I consider this the most energetic line up the band have ever had & I have 3 very competent musicians behind me.

4) What plans do you hold for the future?

Well, as most know I've taken a break away from concerts for a while and have been lucky enough to re-evaluate things on a personal level. Why I took the break doesn't matter but I believe I'm now stronger mentally to deal with things that used to fuck me off. I would love to bring Avalon back into the B&H circuit where the band truly belong as we still have lots to offer. We've got concerts lined up abroad but B&H England is where we started & any problems that were in the past are, on my part, over & done with. Today is a new day and we're going forwards.

5) What do you think of the scene in our capital?

As always the comradeship is one to admire. I've built up very good friendships with the bands local to me and already we've established a base for a Kent Division. Section 88 & Crusade both live local and we are pushing the division very quickly. Mick from Section 88 is an old hand in all this (nearly as old as me) and we both bounce ideas off each other to reach the right decision. Al from Crusade is so laid back that half the time you have to nudge him to check he's awake but he's a man I admire, he's very much a family & folk first, type of guy. I also get good support from mates in the West London & East London Divisions so all in all the scene is very, very vibrant down here.

With so much hope pinned to the coming June elections, do you agree if the results go our way it could be the springboard to major electoral gains and hope in the fight back for our land?

I think the Nationalist parties (love them or loathe them) are moving the boundaries to new levels each & every day. We've seen how the voting has gone over the past 2 years in Northern England & I honestly don't think it's just a protest vote. A protest vote is a one off but the BNP are now getting people elected in continuous elections. To be a success politically is not going to happen overnight & many new roads will be built to bypass the success but it's a fight that needs to be fought and a fight that holds the ultimate prize.

Are there any new recording plans in action?

Certainly is, we've just recorded 5 songs for a split CD with Czech band Beowulf which is due for release soon. We're also waiting for the funds from Imperium Records to get into the studio to record a new album. The new CD will be entitled 'HATE THROUGH THE CHOSEN EYE' and has gone in a new lyrical direction.

You were recently working with Thule, an American prisoner support group, would you like to give us a run down on them?

I still work very closely with Thule & the guy who runs it is an absolute inspiration to me. Thule supports POW's the world over & not just in the States. It's important to remember the families of those left to fend for themselves during incarceration & that's what Thule do. If a young kid of one of our own needs shoes or something then Thule tries to help out. They also issue literature for POW's and supply writing materials and it all costs money. The operation is a one man show and they guy puts the cause first every time. Over here I have seen Odins Martyrs set up recently with the same goals, support for this outlet should be without question in my opinion. Check out both at www.thulepublications.com or www.odinsmartyrs.co.uk

How do you see the scene in general moving in GB at present?

From what I see and hear things are going great. The movement was screaming out for new young blood a while ago and it seems that a whole new audience has grown in a very small time. Whichever direction it moves I hope its origins are never forgotten. Blood & Honour went through a lot to get where it is today and many sacrifices have been made. Skrewdriver, Brutal Attack & No Remorse should always be remembered by all. I also think its time for B&H to 'fix' things with Paul Burnely & somehow get this influential man involved once more.

You were instrumental in getting Pureblood of the ground, you must be very proud of their achievements and growth?

Proud isn't the word! Pureblood was originally meant to be a studio project and nothing more. It's a testament to Charlie that he had the belief to pursue it to the live arena. Charlie has one of the best voices in the movement and his belief in his lyric is breathtaking. I hope they go on to great things but the band is very much theirs and anything they do should be classed as such.

Where do you find your musical inspiration?

In the early days I was very much influenced by Skrewdriver & Brutal Attack. I now need no other influence than to go to work and simply look around me. I can draw influence from scenarios in everyday life which is why most people identify with the lyrical content

Will you be taking Avalon in a new musical direction, each cd so far has broken new ground will this trend continue?

Things are certainly going to be different. The new material is pumped with power but also very harmonious. I have plans for the new CD but until we get into the studio its hard to predict how its going to come out. Any news on this & other stuff to do with Avalon can be found at www.avalonuk.org.uk

Final comments to you?

At this point everyone holds their breath waiting for something to kick off (hehehe) The only comments I have is that its great to have the band up & running again. Any problems that were in the past are exactly that, past. I've too many positive things to give than to be bogged down with other people's problems. For me & the band it's forwards and forwards, I'm not looking in any other direction. Thanks for the interview, good luck with the mag & bring the party on baby!!

Steelcapped Strength

The truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth!

Hail brothers and sisters of Blood & Honour! I would like to take this opportunity to bring you some information about Steelcapped Strength (SCS). One little surprise is that I'm celebrating ten years as a skinhead musician. It's ten years ago since I recorded my first single with my Swedish Viking rock band >Enh rjarna. That was back in 1994. The year after I started SCS, we recorded the Sons of Glory album. Our record label at that time, The Last Resort, claimed that we didn't sell very well with that album. Ok, we went on believing their line and felt a little bit down, but after a while, letters started to come with interviews and stuff. There were skinheads from different fanzines that told me that our album was a bestseller around Europe! Huh? How could that be possible we thought? Our label told us we didn't sell anything?! In other words, we were deeply fucked by our record label, they just pocketed the money and kept a good fucking smile on their faces!

Later, the bass player killed my drummer, and former best friend, but this is stuff you already know so I won't go deeper on this now. I've been involved in a couple of musical projects and recorded a couple of albums through the years. I will keep on making this kind of music and is nothing going to stop me. I believe in our struggle for white freedom & I don't think it's a bad thing to sing about it. Music can be a mighty weapon, to wake people up! I mean, you can listen & enjoy, having a good time and still take the lyrics in a very serious way! That's how it started for me, Ian Sturats music and lyrics made me realize the truth and what we really can achieve IF we for once could stand united! But in my opinion, we really can't achieve a shit yet! Just take a look how our movement is acting today! We have got different nationalist groups that are fighting each other; some think they're more NS than others etc. This is the worst poison for us all, the infighting. The eternal one is laughing at us; we can't show our strength while nationalists are fighting nationalists! Ok, I do agree that some of the groups don't belong in our scene but that's a problem we all have to deal with, together! A lot of things have happened with the SCS. We have done a couple of gigs, both good and bad, sorry for the bad ones. The best in my opinion was when we played in Flanders twice and when we had the honour to play both nights at the ISD 2003 in Great Britain. In Flanders we met B&H for the first time and that's something I'm really proud of! B&H Midgard/Flanders even made me a honourable member! The gig was brilliant! The audience was so great! At that gig there was only the drummer, Nazi-Elvis, that turned up because our bass player had quit and the guy who was going to replace him didn't turn up at the airport and me. So Steve (Headcase) helped us out and did a brilliant job!

After the gig we had a very good evening drinking together with Kenny baby and some of the B&H Midgard, even Jonsey and some of the British B&H were there! Brilliant night!

The day after, Elvis and me woke up and went down to have some coffee before travelling home to Sweden. Dieter, from Les Villains joined us for breakfast. We talked about our future with SCS, with only me and Elvis left in the band. Then Dieter volunteered to play for us, both Elvis & me thought it was a great idea. So now Dieter is still with us. Dieter has been golden point for our band, I mean; thanks to him we have gained many more connections throughout the white world as a band.

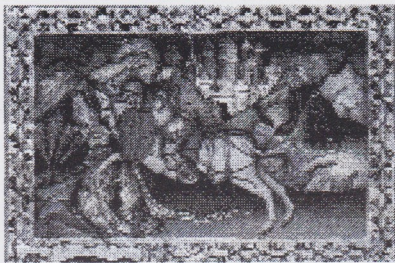

The second gig was at the skinhead pub The Kastelein. A very good gig and atmosphere again!

Good combination in the audience, Hammerskins and Blood and Honour people, patriots and Oi! Skins. All bands have their ups & downs, so do we. Unfortunately we fucked up two gigs, but we have done more gigs than that and they were all good. We gained a reputation that we were alcoholics just because of those two gigs but that's not true. Ok, I'm sorry for the bad gigs but it will never happen again.

Jonesy, Whitelaw & some other British skinheads believe in SCS and they gave us the honour to play in the memory of Ian Stuart at the ISD 2003 in Great Britain! This was, in my opinion, our best gig ever! Elvis had left the band, so we borrowed a drummer from Sweden and the gigs were really great. We had very strong support. We had the honour to play both nights at the ISD. Jonesy joined us for a sing along as did Brad from Eye of Odin and Squadron fame. We had the honour to play those nights together with some of the greatest RAC bands that exist today. So my thanks go to Jonesy & the British B&H for letting us show that we can be serious and that we are not drunkards!

Steelcapped Strength will continue to play whatever the situation looks like! Today we have a new line up once again. It's me, Dieter and our new drummer called Mojje! He is the one who played the drums on my solo album that I've already recorded. The Swedish label Midg rd will release it and in my opinion it has turned out really good. We will soon go to the studio for a new SCS album and Midg rd records will also release it. So this is it for now brothers and sisters! So now I would like to send my honourable regards to Ken & Blood & Honour Vlaanderen Midgard! Jonesy & the British Blood & Honour! Darren & the HSN! The whole skinhead crew that always supports us, you know who you are! See you soon.

For the Blood . Bisson/Steelcapped Strength

St George the Saint of Battles!

"Let the Battle Begin"

The life of Saint George is shrouded in legend, so much so that it is quite difficult to untangle fact from fiction. Much of the problem lies in the Acta Sancti Georgii (Acts of Saint George) written at a very early date and outlawed by Pope Gelasius in AD 496. Meanwhile the Greeks also had a set of Acts which were more accurate and quoted by Saint Andrew of Crete. From them and the writings of Metaphrastes, we can piece together that he was born in Cappadocia of noble, Christian parents and on the death of his father, accompanied his mother to Palestine, her country of origin, where she had land and George was to run the estate. He was martyred at Lydda in Palestine (Nicomedia). He held an important post in the Roman army - the rank of tribune, or perhaps colonel in modern terms - during the reign of the Emperor Diocletian (245-313). Diocletian was a great persecutor of Christians (from about 302) and when the persecutions began George put aside his office and complained personally to the Emperor of the harshness of his decrees and the dreadful purges of Christians. For his trouble, though, he was thrown into prison and tortured. He would not recant his faith however and the following day he was dragged through the streets and beheaded. It is uncertain whether he also tore down the Emperor's decrees as they were posted in Nicomedia. So he was one of the first to perish. The Emperor's wife, Alexandria was so impressed at the Saint's courage that she became a Christian and so too was put to death for her trouble.

The legends surrounding Saint George are very varied. One of them concerns the famous dragon, with which he is invariably portrayed. According to legend, a pagan town in was being terrorised by a dragon. The locals kept throwing sheep to it to placate it, and when it still remained unsatisfied, they started sacrificing some of the citizenry. Finally the local princess was to be thrown also to the beast, but Good Saint George came along, slaughtered the dragon and rescued the fair princess. At this the townsfolk converted to Christianity. The origin of the legend, which is very well known, came originally from the way in which the Greek Church honoured George. They venerated him as a soldier saint and told many stories of his bravery and protection in battle. The western Christians, joining with the Byzantine Christians in the Crusades, elaborated and misinterpreted the Greek traditions and devised their own version.

The story we know today of Saint George and the dragon dates from the troubadours of the 14th century. The reason for his being adopted as the Saint of Battles was partly because he was a soldier, but also because he is said to have appeared to the Christian army before the Battle of Antioch. It is also said that he appeared to King Richard the Lionheart during his Crusade against the Saracens, which served as a great encouragement to the troops. Over the years as the self haters have infected and influenced English society St George has become a symbol of resistance to the downtrodden English in their own land. The symbols explained are that the Dragon represents Satan (Communism/Multi Culturalism) and the Princess represents the English people.

Saint George rescued our land from evil by vanquishing it and saved the people from being devoured by the insatiable forces of darkness, in these dark times we need his return. The power of his symbloism is well known to our Establishment and powers to be, that is why all celebrations of St George are officially stifled to cause minimum publicity and awaken our people. Former Conservative leader William Hague famously said in 2000: "English nationalism is the most dangerous of all forms of nationalism that can arise" and Home Secretary Jack Straw described the English as "potentially very aggressive, very violent" and will "increasingly articulate their Englishness following devolution" and English Nationalists have "used that propensity to violence to subjugate Ireland, Wales and Scotland, and then we used it with Europe and with our Empire". Why should Scottish and Welsh nationalism be seen as a noble thing when in England it is seen as something dirty? because it frightens them, the British heroes who fought in the first European army of the Waffen SS initial fought under the banner "Legion of St George", and countless patriots and freedom fighters have done so since, St George has become the patron Saint of Battle and Resistance, we have been shackled by the left with the so called guilt from our Empire days and by the predominant Scottish element in our Government. The Scots refused to have foundation hospitals, yet it was Scottish MPS, voting in Westminster, who tipped the balance and foisted them on the English. They did a similar thing with top up fees for students in both cases, if English MPS had voted, we would have kicked these measures out! So maybe we now have the answer to the authorities hatred and disgust to those who celebrate their Englishness and St George, Home rule, if Scotland and Wales can have home rule why cant we?

The Seige of Harfleur 1415

"I see you Stand like greyhounds in the slips,

Straining upon the Start. The game's afoot:

Follow your spirit; and, upon this charge

Cry "God for Harry! England and Saint George!"

Shakespeare, Henry V (1599) act 3, sc. 1, l. 31

Colin Jordan

A living inspiration and example of the true National Socialist, an introduction pt1.

More and more people are opening their eyes and coming to see that Hitler was right. They are coming to see that our real enemies, the people we should have fought, were not Hitler and the National Socialists of Germany but World Jewry and its associates in this country.

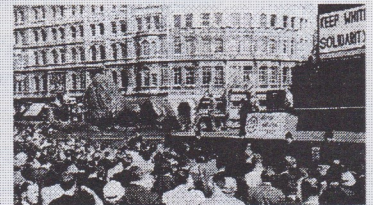

Colin Jordan — First NSM meeting, July 02nd, 1962, London s Trafalgar Square

Colin Jordan was born in 1923 in Birmingham. He attended Warwick School where he won a university scholarship in History. Volunteering for the Fleet Air Arm, but unsuccessful on a pilot s course, transferred to the Royal Air Force. While on deferred service awaiting flying training, his political ideas so developed that at the end of 1944, when deferred service personnel were transferred to the Army as then surplus to requirements, he declared his political opposition to the war and his support for a negotiated peace. As a result he was sent to the Royal Army Medical Corps in which he later became a unit educational instructor. On demobilisation he took up his adjourned studies ay Cambridge University. While doing so he also organised a University Nationalist Club, served on the staff of the University newspaper Varsity, and was a front bench speaker in debates at the Union Society. He graduated in 1949 with an Honours Degree. While at Cambridge he had joined the British Peoples Party and been elected to its National Council, and on leaving Cambridge he founded a Birmingham Nationalist Club which he conducted until moving to Leeds to take up a teaching post, and later moving to the Scottish Highlands as representative for a major company. During this period his first book Fraudulent Conversion, was published in 1955. Returning to the Midlands and to teaching, he joined the League of Empire Loyalists, becoming its Midlands Organiser, before founding the White Defence League in 1958. This merged with another organisation in 1960 to form a British National Party of which he was the chief officer, and from it emerged the National Socialist Movement under his leadership. Solely because of the NSM s July 1962 Trafalgar Square rally, Colin Jordan was dismissed from his teaching post and disqualified as a teacher. He was then prosecuted and convicted for his speech at the rally and for his part in the NSM s defence corps, and given a total of ten months imprisonment. In 1967 he was gaoled again, given 18 months for his writings. In 1968 the NSM was replaced by the British Movement under his leadership. In 1975 personal commitments obliged his retirement. Moving to Yorkshire home of his paternal ancestors, he has since confined himself to his writings.

...the struggle is the great purpose of life. Even if it could be proved beyond the slightest doubt that we will not succeed and are doomed to failure, it would still be a necessity of life for the real National Socialist to fight for the cause to the utmost, and to inflict as such punishment as possible on the enemy. Colin Jordan

Strikeforce U.K

A storm from the North is arising.

Greetings please give the Brotherhood the history of Strikeforce and your up and coming battle plans?

The band formed in the summer of 2001 and at the time were a non political OI! band known then as the Hardmen. However a girl joined the band so we decided to change our name to Strikeforce. She has since left the band as have the rest of the original line up. It wasn't till I met up with our new vocalist Shaun that we decided to bring the band back in the form of a Nationalist band. The current line up is Shaun (18) vocals; myself (20) Dodge on guitar, Chris (31) on bass, Sticks (42) on drums and Pitbull (20) on backing vocals.

What made you make the decision to form a band in these troubled times and join the musical resistance?

We love getting up and playing in front of people and what better way to do it than promote something you believe, the survival of our race. Music is a very powerful tool and if we get even a hundred people to stand up for their country we have achieved something.

How have you been greeted so far, and what impressions have you made of the scene in general?

The whole scene in general is so great. Everyone is friendly and supportive and we couldn't wish to be part of a better musical resistance. The organisation for the gigs is second to none and everyone does their bit.

You made a stunning debut at the 2003 White Christmas, were you expecting such a great reaction? We were quietly confident of an ok reaction, but we had no idea we would get a reaction like that. The crowd made the atmosphere so special and have made us eager for more. It's great to play in front of people who share your views and enjoy your music.

Are any of your members politically active and what future do you see on the horizon for the political make up of the North East?

Although most of the band members are not members of a political party we try to help them out in every way possible. The Nationalist parties in the N.E. are gradually getting stronger and in a couple of years I think we're gonna be a real threat to the enemies of our Nation.

What bands do your members find musical inspiration from?

We respect all the bands out there who are prepared to play for what they think is right, but as you can tell from our style of music it's the early OI! /RAC bands that have the biggest influence on us. Bands such as Combat 84, English Rose, The Overlords, The Diehards, Peter and the Wolf, London Branch and Public Enemy and of course Skrewdriver have all been an inspiration to us. As for today's bands we especially like Section 88, Warhammer, Celtic Warrior and Whitelaw.

How is the skinhead scene in your area, with yourself and Warhammer now patrolling the North East things must have taken an upturn?

The skinhead scene in the NE is rapidly growing, Warhammer and ourselves are in regular contact and we meet up both socially and at band meetings. We all get along really well, which is good because if something is to work out for the better we all need to work together.

Has the scourge of the so called Asylum seeker tainted your area?

Unfortunately Newcastle is becoming like most areas in England — swamped. Newcastle is a beautiful city and a place we love and cherish and it makes us sick at how it has become plagued with the world's problem people.

What was your take on the war for Iraqi oil, and the British passport holders from Tipton who fought for the Muslims and their imminent return?

We believe declaring war purely for oil is wrong and unfair to the British soldiers, our sympathies go out to those who have lost loved ones. However an evil dictator has been removed and hopefully many Iraqi refugees will now go home to rebuild their country and leave us to ours. But the temptation of soft touch Britain will probably prove too much. We shall see. As for the Tipton Muslims; that comes as no surprise. These cowardly people are all extremists and a real threat to our Nation. It's quite scary when you think about it. Enoch Powell spoke of the enemy within but was tragically ignored. He must be turning in his grave.

Any plans to play mainland Europe yet or any recordings on the way?

We have a few gigs booked but none for Europe just yet, but if we get the chance we'll jump to it. We hope to get a record deal soon, as we are keen to record our songs. Hopefully it will all be a matter of time.

How would you describe your musical sound?

We consider ourselves traditional RAC/OI! like that of the early/mid 80s. Although Shaun Pitbull and myself missed all that first time round, it's the music we enjoy listening to most. Our lyrics are straight to the point without being negative and our music is fast but without entering the hardcore/metal category.

Closing comments?

Many thanks B&H for the interview and also to Warhammer for the support. Special thanks also to Slash and Hardy for the friendship and encouragement they have shown. White Power 88.

Ancestors

Could you give our Readers a history of the band?

Band ANCESTORS started to play at the end of 1999. Originally we played in this formation: PAVUK - Guitar MICHAL - Vocals: NIKO - Bass guitar: GUSTO - Drums. Our first gig we played in July 2001. We had played with Czech bands AGRESE 95 and REVOLTA. After our second gig, our singer left us and he founded a NS Black Metal band. Our guitarist PAVUK began to singing and we started to play Rock Roll style. In 2001 we released our debut CD: Nastal cas! (Time has come!). This album had great success in neighbour lands. Our band played more than 30 gigs to this day.

Could you give us some insight into the scene in Slovakia?

The skinheads scene started to form in 1983 - 85. They were the first skinheads. With them were Nazi punks. The biggest explosion of our movement was in 1989, after the fall of Communism in our land. In years 1993 -95 there were the most skinheads. The most being located in Bratislava. The center of our movement was the band KRATKY PROCES, who played around 1988. From that time there has been in Slovakia many concerts of international interest, many Zines have been released, many meetings and parties organised. In these days there are around 2000 skinheads in Slovakia, and 200 of those skinheads are active in Bratislava.

Have all your shows gone smoothly, how do, if at all the laws differ in Slovakia?

There were times, when everything was OK. But in the last two/three years we have been under a police siege. We have big problems with humanistic organisations like Ludia proti rasizmu (People against Racism). The biggest raid was in 2001, when at a MAX RESIST, they stormed the gig and imprisoned many people. From that time, every white patriot has problems.

What are your views on American world policy in the Middle East?

We have never agreed with American politics, because that nation is governed by jews. Finally everyone can see big cooperation between U.S.A. and Israel. They say, that many other people are terrorists, but they are the real terrorists!
U.S. ARMY - JEWISH ARMY

Could you please describe your releases and musical direction?

In 2001 we released our CD: Nastal cas! which has an R.A.C. style. Now we are working on our second CD : The final Storm, which will be in hate core style. Half of the songs will be in the Slovak language and the second half will be in English. We hope, that you will enjoy.

Your views on the reemergence of B&H in Slovakia, and the working relationship forming with your European neighbours?

We are proud that we can play under the banner of the Blood and Honour organisation, which was founded by a great man. This organisation is the biggest in the world. We have played some gigs under the banner of B&H in Hungary, Slovenija, Italy Relationships between other divisions are very good and we wish, that they will be still better. We will be hard working on our division. And we hope, that we will be as good as the other divisions. There is a very good cooperation with Blood and Honour Slovenia, Bohemia, Rumunia.

Any upcoming bands in Slovakia you rate, and our readers should watch out for?

Good new bands are NO COMPROMISE, WOLF ANGELS, PATRIOT. They are very young bands, which have played only a few gigs and some of them haven't released any CDs yet, but they are hard working and we wish them all success in future. Active bands are: TERRITORY, JUDEN MORD, D.M.S., DEATHWARANT, BEFORE THE WAR and FRONT 18.

How is the political scene in your country, what political parties should we watch out for?

Our political scene is bad, we haven't any real nationalist party. Communists are in parliament. They want to integrate our land to NATO and the corrupt EU, they are doing everything with that aim. They have no problems lying to our people. We are against our government. We are very sad, that our national spirit is falling down and people haven't any loyalty to their land and ancestors.

Is the band aligned to any political group?

The band doesn't belong to any political party, the band only supports Blood and Honour Slovakia.

From what and whom did you pull your inspiration to form a band?

The biggest inspiration for us were old English bands like SKREWDRIVER, BRUTAL ATTACK, NO REMORSE. The biggest influence on us was the legendary Slovak band KRATKY PROCES. We wanted to support the skinheads music scene in Slovakia, because our music scene in Slovakia was falling down.

Your most memorable event, as a skinhead rock band?

There are so many great memories. I can remember our big concerts, like BRUTAL ATTACK, ARMCO, GESTA BELLICA, PLUTON SVEA. And we were arrested for some days in the Czech republic, for playing songs about the martyr Rudolf Hess.

What plans do you have for the future?

We want to finish, what we have started. We want to make music with our opinions. We want to open peoples eyes, and we want to help unite our white movement. UNITED WE ARE STRONGER, NO MORE BROTHERS WAR.

What do you think poses the greatest threat to our Europe today?

The biggest threat for us is, that our towns are inundated with immigrants from the third world, with their alien cultures, young white people are under influence of drugs, MTV, Coca Cola and McDonalds, homosexuality has become a normal thing, and behind everything are the people from Dead Sea.

Any Final Comments?

Thank you for your interest in our band and the Slovak White Power Scene. We send greetings to all our friends and fans. I sincerely wish, that we will be successful in our fight.

THE 3rd ANNUAL ARYAN FEST 2004

30th, 31st and 1st January 2004 ~ Arizona, U.S.A.

After driving for what seemed like days and days into the Arizona desert, we came to the campsite, which was hosting the truly international annual event known as Aryan Fest. After passing the Ranger toll, we made our way to the site within the McDowell Regional Mountain Park. Consisting of a large carpark area and purpose made campground. Complete with on-site toilets, barbecues, tables and covered seating.

Everyone had done an excellent job of organising the site, which had plenty of parking, a fully stocked bar on the far side and security. To the edges were the various stalls of groups in attendance, Volksfront, NSM, WAU, White Revolution and the main merchandise stall provided by Panzerfaust Records and Thule Publications. Selling almost any CD you could want or need. Nearby was a tattoo area, which was kept busy throughout the day.

In the centre of the main site was the band stage. With excellent sound system perfect for an outside venue. It was a wonderful atmosphere of great expectations as more and more comrades began to arrive. From all over the state, nation and beyond they came.

All to take part in a show of White Unity and strength against the forces of occupation and oppression. The ZOG enforcers could be seen gathering on the edges, peering into the site with their binoculars and helicopters. But as ever when Whites Unite, we cant be beaten!

With about 300 white and proud people now gathered, from the very old (over 80) to the very young (under 8 months), all were busy meeting and greeting new friends alike. By now it was coming up to 1pm and the first of the guest speakers were called up to the stage. Billy Roper the Chairman of White Revolution. He spoke about all the ideas white power comrades have suggested from separate white homelands, direct action, political infiltration, use of democracy, etc. to achieve our aims. He told us that he himself did not have the answers, but we must keep trying to find the answers by working together. And above all else Keep Fighting!

Next came the one and only Tom Metzger of White Aryan Resistance. Who delivered a blistering speech on our future and present situations. Who warned us against constantly drawing attention to ourselves in such visible ways. In addition telling us many of our objectives can only be achieved through use of stealth and secrecy. He also reminded us all that we must not forget our enemies of the so-called conservative politicians and business corporations.

Then the legendary Pastor Richard Butler founder and leader of Aryan Nations rose up to speak. He may well appear to be old and a little feeble. But he is by no means feeble-minded, his voice and message remained firm and strong. The crowd watched in awe as one the longest serving white nationalists of the present time spoke.

Last but no means least came a guest speaker all the way from Germany. Who spoke of the comradeship and racial unity across the sea. Whether here in Europe or over in USA we all have the same enemies and all whites must stand up and fight!

Next there was a short awards ceremony from the NSM to give books and the like in recognition of the hard work people had done in organising this event and behind the scene work. After we had a little time to fetch refreshments and get a bite to eat from the bbq s before the bands tookover the stage.

First band up on stage, coming all the way from Germany, was Valhalla s Patriots. Followed by America s finest Max Resist, Rebel Hell, Youngland, and American Standard. All playing a superb set of White Power Reich and Roll. Which gave everyone a chance to dance around. Which came in very handy from the freezing conditions!

As the night arrived it got colder and colder and a few bonfires were set up to keep us warm through the night. Which were later made use to cook a few marshmallows and toast. With some of us wishing we had brought those hoodies and scarves from the stalls earlier.

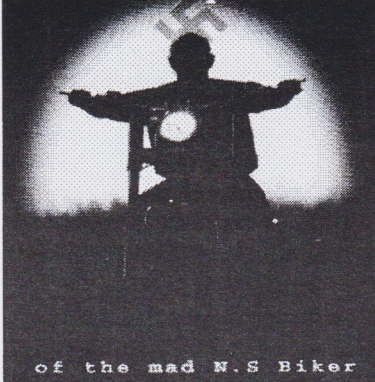

So as the biggest White Power event ever in Arizona proved to be more than a great success. Those who oppose us sit scared as we march on stronger and stronger.

With no arrests, and no trouble, no drunkenness, and no fights. A near perfect display of an Aryan Fest! Thanks go out to Volksfront, White Revolution, Women for Aryan Unity, WHS, Panzerfaust Records, Thule Publications, White Aryan Resistance.

Skullcrusher in Holland & U.K

The loyal and dedicated stalwarts from Slovenian division of our movement played their second away from home gig in the Netherlands on March 13th 2004. The success of their appearance at the British White Yuletide gig the previous December put this vibrant hardcore band on the international map. Unfortunately the Netherlands gig was stopped when Rok, the vocalist attempted to dedicate a song for the 12th anniversary of the death of 4 members of Welsh band Violent Storm in an horrific car crash on an English motorway. What happened to Rok and his band, on stage in Holland is sure to be a watershed. The band, their Slovenian friends and members of the now defunct Brigade M were violently attacked by a skinhead gang chanting c18 terror machine. C18 is a state honey trap that never attack red bands, they only attack, real N.S. It was not a Blood & Honour gig; it was a fundraiser for a small N.S. political party. Skullcrusher are now more determined than ever to carry on with their message of white pride.

We in England immediately invited these honourable and proud musicians to be our special guests, playing the St Georges Day gig, held in West London 24 April 2004, alongside Brutal Attack, Woden, Pureblood and the mighty Legion of St George. So successful was this gig that a modest donation was given to a local patriot who will use the money to help his election campaign this summer.

H & M.C. Divisions launched

On the day of a gig hosted by our friends from Commitatus (Latin for committed) Midgard and their new 2nd chapter, Commitatus Asgard, two new Blood & Honour divisions were launched in England. 21Feb 2004, the new H division was inaugurated in Heanor, Derbyshire, the town where Ian Stuart lived before his untimely death in 1993. The town has never ceased being a hotbed for National Socialist activity. Ian Stuart's personal legacy lives on in his adopted hometown. Good luck Heanor!

On the same day, the M.C. (Motor Cycle) division was inaugurated in Northamptonshire. With many skinheads owning bikes, it has been felt that Blood & Honour should cherry pick those with an aptitude to fly the movement name in circles not usually frequented by other Blood & Honour supporters. The M.C. division wears patches as follows: Blood top rocker, Honour bottom rocker and the shield of the Liebstandarte (translated from German, means personal standard) Adolf Hitler. Diamond shaped patches 14 and 88 are also worn on each shoulder of a leather waistcoat. Due to what can be described as a highly charged and polarised situation in U.K. MC club biker patch politics, we had to use a neutral colour (black writing on light blue background). With most serious clubs in the U.K. being part of or in support of the two main power blocks, there is virtually no clubs here putting up patches that are independent. With most back patch clubs now shut down or joined the big two, it has been decided that we will fly our patches on the front only. Gigs will however remain the focal point of club attendance, a political club on the political scene. This was a niche we felt was there to be filled because our comrades in Midgard and Asgard are doing a great job on the bike scene. They launched this year the new 9% patch, club members wearing it to draw attention to the pitifully low numbers of whites in the overall human population. White trash bike club as ever remain firm friends, their 27th anniversary being in June 2004. Their patches remain unchanged in 27 years, an indomitable spirit, led from the front by a respected patriot. Blood & Honour M.C. division has already been seen at rallies and bike events throughout the Midlands and South, reaction so far being inquisitive, nonchalant or supportive. We expect hostility but not from other clubs (?) we will see. The 40 year old independent Road Rats M.C. London are an inspiration to us, thanks!

Numbers are not everything so please stop asking at gigs, how many of you are there? It's not your business and what does it matter? Quality counts, not quantity. We are not street brawlers, we are political devotees. If interested get in touch. We hope to be worldwide.

Time To Stand Up For Your Country

No doubt either yourself or your friends have become concerned at what little say we have in the running of our own country, and how foreigners have got themselves into the position where they are dictating to us. For as long as the British remain passive and occupy their time watching programmes such as Eastenders, Big Brother and Pop Idol, instead of taking to the streets our problems will continue to escalate. The National Front has continued actively campaigning on the streets of our land, our National Campaign of Remembrance for all white Britons killed by the hands of immigrants has seen demonstrations for Terry Gregory in Woolwich South London, Ross Parker in Peterborough and Jason Spence. In Scotland the National Front contested the Queens Cross bye election, our second attempt in Aberdeen, the local press coverage being excellent. Wales NF have been active in Wrexham, Newport and Swansea and have a number of activities lined up. West Midlands have continued large scale leafletting and plan to field as many candidates as possible in June looking to contest elections in the Birmingham, Dudley, Sandwell and Worcester councils. A quarterly news sheet titled West Midlander has been launched and anyone wishing to receive copy send a SAE : Box 114, Solihull, West Midlands, B91 2UR. North East NF are concentrating on pre election work and are standing candidates in Newcastle, North Tyneside and South Tyneside. All responses on the streets and at our meetings have been very positive with more people coming forward. Also a new issue of Northern Front is in the pipe line. The NF also has active branches in Norfolk, Bicester and many other areas. Get active now! IS IT NOT TIME THAT YOU GOT ON YOUR FEET AND JOINED WITH US IN THE DEFENCE OF OUR HOMELAND?

B & H ~ H DIVISION ~ INAUGURAL GIG

10 04 04 ~ England

It was with great honour we were all invited to the founding of a new B & H Division. Namely H Division who are mass division having the support of many people from different Nationalist and National Socialist organisations, but remaining totally independent. As ever following in the footsteps and ideals of the Blood and Honour founder Ian Stuart. H Divisions support is far and widely stretches into the ancient Shires of England.

So after a modest drive to the middle of our Great Britain we arrived at the selected venue. Which itself has seen many previous distinguished concerts in times gone by. As such was an admirable choice to have the first gig for H Division. With the crowd already beginning to gather and more arriving later it was to be a typically well supported evening.

Leading the way as ever first band to grace the stage as much as any Skinhead band could grace a stage, came the British bootboys Section 88. As the crowd moved forward each and everyone gave their full support to a wonderful set of songs. Starting how they intended to go on with The 88 State, Wall of Lies, Freedom, Loyal Ulster, British Bootboys, Pride in Our People, Vikings, Asylum Seeker, and No Remorse's Hate Your Face followed by Bloodsucker. This band never lets up and is a fine example of what can be achieved a marvelous display of White Power professionalism.

Next local band flying the banner of Blood and Honour up on stage were Whitelaw. Fetch the Noose, Skinhead Heart, We're Coming for You, The Drum Beats for You, Pride and Dignity, Take the Salute, Heanor, Call me the Fool. Whitelaw also introduced us to a few new songs. From their forthcoming new album, What Have We Got?, They Wanna Be Me, Kick in Their Heads and Combat 84's Rapist made a great final song. As ever a wonderful show from Whitelaw right in their own neighbourhood, showing us all we can't be beaten!

It was time again for the Welsh musical wizards, Celtic Warrior to show us their talent. Last but by no means least Billy and the boys stormed forward into Let the Battle Begin, Invader, Ole Ole, Rise to the Wings, Celtic Warrior, Fortress's Commie Scum, Brutal Attack's Tales of Glory, Skrewdriver's Back With a Bang, Our Pride is Our Loyalty, and Tomorrow Belongs to Me, and to finish the end of the night Let the Battle Begin once again! Celtic Warrior kept us all on our feet until the very end, a fantastic performance from a really dedicated band!

This was a fantastic show of strength and unity all under the battle flag of Blood and Honour. This will be the first of many great displays of White Power music for White Power people under the H Division name. Thanks goes out to all who organised this evening and to all the bands and to all of those making the effort and showing their support for our bands!

Deutschland 10-5-04

On April 10th we went to a gig. Selbsteller, Barking Dogs and Les Villains were due to play. Originally the gig should have been in Wolfsburg but the gig was announced a long time ago and so the police had plenty of notice and tried to ban every activity on this day in that area.

Fortunately the organiser found another venue for the concert. We drove a few kilometers to a small village where we met other comrades in front of a barn!

Even there the police were waiting for us and as usual they took particulars from every comrade. The contingent of police was getting bigger all the time and we thought the concert would definitely be cancelled, but at 10 o'clock the Barking Dogs from Germany entered the stage. They played a fantastic set which lasted 90 minutes. The crowd was dancing and the mood was growing. Good show!!!

After Barking Dogs, Selbsteller from Riesa took their place on the stage. The air was burning and the crowd packed the hall! For about 90 minutes they also played, mostly songs from their albums. At the end of their set they played European Skinhead Army by the real No Remorse and Revuelta by Division 250 which finished it off and got everybody dancing. A great show!

After them the Belgians from Les Villains took the stage. With their goold old style they remind me a bit of Legion 88 and Bunker 84. With songs like Jet Set Skinhead they made the crowd go wild! Altogether a very good show!

To complete this great evening a few guest musicians played a few cover songs like Skrewdriver's Back With A Bang which made the crowd go wild again!

The concert ended about 3 o'clock > a very good evening. The police had to stay out until the concert was finished hehe

The only negative things were the sound system, that could have been a bit better, and the hall that was a bit too small for the 300-400 visitors. But most importantly the gig went ahead. See you next time! Einigkeit und Recht und Freiheit

The Enemy Within

Five "British passport holders" Ruhul Ahmed, 21, Asif Iqbal, 20, Shafiq Rasul, 24, Tarek Dergoul, 24, and Jamal Al-Harith, 35, were flown to a Royal Air Force base in Northolt, Northwest of London, after the British Government agreed to ensure they posed no security risk to the US or its allies. Tarek Dergoul was captured after the battle of Tora Bora, where loyalists of Osama bin Laden held off US and British special forces so the al-Qa'ida leader could escape. Now he is trying to sell his story, like all the other rats claiming innocence!

Iqbal, a parcel depot worker from Tipton in the Midlands, had gone "to Pakistan to meet a prospective bride before flying to Afghanistan to consider the marriage. He was joined by two school friends - Ahmed and Rasul. All three were detained by U.S. forces in Afghanistan". Seemingly it is quite natural to ponder marriage arrangements in a war zone! Al-Harith, a Web site designer from Manchester had "gone backpacking in Pakistan" in September 2001, and was arrested on the Afghan border by Taliban soldiers spying". He was sent to Guantanamo after U.S. forces found him in a Kandahar jail. Sandwell councillor Syeda Khatun, 34, is standing for re-election to the Tipton Green ward this May, having become only the second ever Bangladeshi councillor in the country in 1999. BUT her brother is missing after travelling to Pakistan with the so-called three Tipton Taliban mentioned above. Now more than two years on there is still no sign of Munir and he remains on a Foreign Office list of Missing Persons - with hopes that he may have been killed in the heavy fighting in Afghanistan. Unconfirmed reports of him being in heavy fighting in Kandahar in the south of the war-torn country, don't put our wedding travellers in a good light do they. Innocent my arse! Four other rats are still hopefully rotting at Guantanamo Bay, far from being punished for being traitorous vermin these low lives will now become Muslim heroes and rake a fortune in from the bleeding hearts of our sad left. And the other dirt bag will probably get re-elected to our Government on the strength of her brother's actions!

The Americans our allies who's word was good enough to attack Iraq killing tens of thousands and risking and indeed sacrificing the lives of our own heroic servicemen are not to be trusted, when they purport to have evidence on all these Asians being terrorists and attending training camps to use Kalishnikovs! Our lilly livered authorities have released all these traitorous scumbags without charge!

THE [British] immigration minister Beverley Hughes personally authorised a policy to allow tens of thousands of migrants into Britain without adequate checks, according to a leaked Home Office document.

Beverley Hughes MP, the Blair babe, in charge of the Immigration Fiasco that we the British public are paying for, has resigned. She lied, cheated and squirmed until cornered like a rat in barrel and admitted letting thousands of Eastern Europeans in without checks and on illegal documents that were clearly false. There are now tens if not hundreds of thousands of foreigners being allowed to stay who do not qualify to be here. This includes drug dealers, other criminals and probably the odd terrorist. The Home Office whistle-blower who initially accused ministers of hiding the truth about immigration by operating a secret policy allowing thousands of "ineligible" migrants to enter Britain has not been hailed a hero to the British people but has been suspended. President Blair has also now been implemented in the immigration scandal, more facts to come we think.

SCHOOLKIDS have been banned from wearing England football shirts on a non-uniform day because of fears they could incite racism. The move follows the closure of The Grange School in Lye, West Midlands, after anti-white racist graffiti was daubed on the walls. Some parents slammed the ban which applied to anything with the England badge on it. Will they ban Muslims if anti Muslim graffiti is discovered?? Once again the English self-haters of the left score another own goal by pandering to Muslim aggression.

A Norfolk licensee is taking his case for extended opening on St George's Day to court. Tony Bennett, licensee of the Otter in Drayton, Norfolk applied for a special order of exemption with Norwich Magistrates to allow him to keep his pub open until midnight on April 23. However the licensing clerk asked him if he would like to withdraw his application because the magistrates did not classify St George's Day as a special occasion! "Last year I applied for an extension for Chinese Year of the Goat and they gave it to me". Another public house in Oldham was denied an extension for St George's day after being granted extensions for St Patrick's Day and American Independence Day!

In an interview with The Observer on 21 March, The Deputy Prime Minister, John Prescott, indicated that the government plan to double the rate of house building in England. He was responding to the Barker Report which recommends building an extra 120,000 new private sector homes in England each year to reduce the trend in real house prices to 1.1% per year. The Barker report looked primarily at the supply of housing and how this could be made more sensitive to price. It did not explore whether some of the factors driving demand, and therefore price, could be managed. But even on the Government's latest, and very conservative, projection of 103,000 net immigration each year, more than 1.1 million homes will be required just for immigrants for the period 1996-2021. For the past five years, however, net immigration has been running at an even higher average of 158,000 a year and this excludes illegal immigrants which the Home Secretary acknowledges is a large, if unknown number. Migrationwatch UK believes that net immigration will continue at about the average of recent years. If this proves correct, total new households attributable to migration in the planning period 1996 - 2021 would be 1.75 million. This means that well over half the extra houses will be for new immigrants.

Oldham Chronicle Front Page Head line shock "Pensioners Benefits Axed By Firm", OAP's who used to work at their local bakery have had their bonus stopped because of cut backs in the company. Tucked away in the middle read the headline "Victim of Machete Attack has 100 Stitches in Racist Attack", A lone white man was set upon by a gang of ten Asians had his wrist broke and his tendons severed. Where would the headline be if the assailants were white and victim Asian?

Jewish media mogul was named chairman of the BBC. Michael Grade, 61, a high profile but controversial figure in British media, will take the top non-executive position at the state broadcaster after he receives royal assent. Grade formerly head of Channel 4, where he was dubbed "pornographer-in-chief" for some of his late-night programming. A keen supporter of Yiddish culture, Grade is vice-president of The London-based JMI International Forum for Yiddish Culture. Israel and Jewish groups have been harshly critical of the BBC, accusing it of anti-Israel bias.... enough said.

BRITAIN's race relations chief has called for the abandonment of the policy pursued by successive governments since the 1960s of building a "multicultural society". Trevor Phillips, the chairman of the Commission for Racial Equality, said that multiculturalism was out of date and no longer useful, not least because it encouraged "separateness" between communities. For the first time we agree with Mr Phillips, his statement came with the now infamous picture of Muslims burning the Union Jack in London while chanting, "UK you will pay, Bin Laden on his way" Kriss Donald, was murdered by five Asians, his body was found dumped behind Celtics ground. The fifteen year old was walking with a friend when he was attacked and dragged into a van by the Asians in Pollokshields, his nineteen year old companion was able to run off, he was beaten and tortured and his body dumped three miles away on a walkway behind the Celtic Supporters Club on London Road in Glasgow's east end. Detective Superintendent Elliot McKenzie, in charge of the investigation, said: "This was a particularly brutal and apparently senseless attack on a young boy. "We have yet to establish a motive for this crime". Yeah right!

A memorial stone for Gavin Hopley laid by the British National Party in the spot where he was murdered in a race attack, was dug up by Oldham council and the flowers planted with it were pulled up and thrown away! Meanwhile the plaque for Stephen Lawrence has twenty four-hour police guard and CCTV in our land of equals.

Anti-terror police have seized eight UK-born youths of Pakistani descent, and a ninth who was born in Algeria, on suspicion of terrorist activities. Seven hundred officers and scores of men from MI5, the domestic security service, kicked doors down in Luton, in west London and in Crawley, Sussex. It was the biggest counter-terrorist operation in the UK for a decade or more and came after a lengthy surveillance operation, which needed David Blunkett, the Home Secretary, to authorise personally a series of phone taps. In a nondescript storage centre in Hanley, west London, lay half a tonne of ammonium nitrate, an agricultural fertiliser that has been used as a prime constituent in massive bombs by al-Qaeda, the IRA and other terrorists all over the world. Police have linked the find to the arrested men - who have protested their innocence. Combined with a detonator and a small amount of plastic explosive, the chemicals in the lock-up would have generated a massive blast. "Senior police officers have secretly been monitoring the existence of 'dozens of potential suicide bombers' in the UK, they were thinking about young British-born Muslims. 'Freelancers' - in the language of counter terrorism - acting autonomously and anonymously to fulfil their own private terrorist ambitions. A series of terrorist incidents involving young Britons overseas has reinforced that perception. For some, that assessment was nothing more than an overdue recognition of an 'enemy within'".

"The Home Office now suspects that 10,000 bogus wedding ceremonies take place in London alone every year to avoid immigration controls".

The NHS is on its knees because of the number of asylum seekers using it, the Daily Mail stated. "There are now so many asylum seekers coming to this country solely for the purpose of being ill that there are no longer doctors or nurses left to treat British patients," British doctors and nurses now refer to the National Health Service as the "International Health Service", due to its rape by foreign health tourists.

London Mayor Ken Livingstone: "I am 56 years old and have lived in London all my life. I have yet to see any evidence of a tradition or culture of celebrating St. George's Day as a public festival." (Is he sure?)

London Mayor Ken Livingstone: I have responded positively to requests by London communities to support a number of festivals that allow all Londoners to celebrate the diversity of our city's cultures, for example Chinese New Year, Diwali, the Notting Hill Carnival, St. Patrick's Day and others. "So why is our -- England's -- National Day excluded? Why are we not given recognition as part of this diversity?

New Home Office figures show numbers of African Caribbean prisoners has leapt a staggering 58% since 1997, with young black men under 25 making up over 90% of all black inmates. Afro Caribbean men are nine times more likely to commit a crime that warrants a prison sentence as punishment than a British man, according to the latest Government statistics.

An ICM poll in Britain found that one in five Britons would oppose a Jewish Prime Minister, while one in seven believed that the Holocaust was exaggerated. Official figures showed a 15% rise in anti Semitic incidents in 2003.

Letters of Defiance

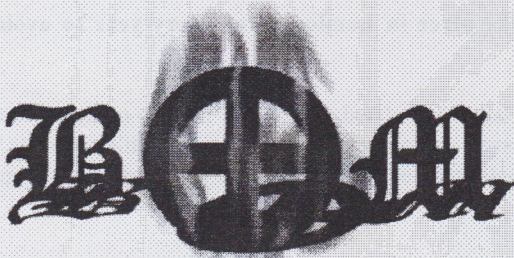

A series of letters just uncovered from William Joyce have revealed that the National Socialist like a true hero remained unrepentant as he awaited execution. The letters, written by Joyce as he awaited trial and then sentence to death in 1946 for broadcasting Nazi propaganda during the Second World War, were discovered in an attic. In the last, dated December 28, 1945, just six days before he was hanged, Joyce made it clear there was no sense of repentance. He wrote from Wandsworth prison: The execution will take place at 9 am on Thursday; and you can think of me at that time as entering upon a triumph and of your friend as carrying this friendship to the other Bank (sic). William Joyce, who was dubbed Lord Haw Haw for his broadcasts from Berlin during the brothers war always began with the words: Germany calling, and made pro-Hitler and anti-Semitic broadcasts. BBC Monitoring Reports regularly transcribed Joyce's radio broadcasts from Berlin. On the occasion of the 1945 air raid on Dresden he broadcast that while the British were gloating that there would not be much china left undestroyed in the city that morning, they failed to realize that what was at stake was more than just the future of a few pieces of porcelain. The letters once again show this much-maligned man who led from the front was of great strength of character, and fearless in the face of his adversaries..... our adversaries. One day when history is re written to tell the truth he will be rightfully seen as a man who fought for all he believed and stayed true, a hero in any sense of the word.

David Irving comments:

I AM not sure how undiscovered these letters are. I remember reading a Sunday Express series about thirty years ago in which letters of William Joyce were reproduced. They showed great strength of character, and fearlessness in the face of his adversaries. To his mother on the day of his execution he wrote, I recall: I am not afraid of death. My death will cause less pain to me than my birth caused to you. And more in the same vein. BBC Monitoring Reports regularly transcribed Joyce's radio broadcasts from Berlin. On the occasion of the 1945 British air raid on Dresden he broadcast that while the British were gloating that there would not be much china left undestroyed in the city that morning, they failed to realize that what was at stake was more than just the future of a few pieces of porcelain. His style went down well with the British working classes, and at one time he had a listening audience of millions in England. His fellow traitor in Berlin was John Amery, son of Churchill's schoolfriend and Cabinet Minister Leo Amery. On trial for his life at the Old Bailey in 1947, John Amery was asked on the first day how he pleaded. He said: Guilty, Your Honour. Shocked, the judge put on the black cap and sentenced him to death immediately, and he was hanged a few days later. His father was recently outed by Prof William Rubinstein as a secret Jew. Go figure that one.

Curious detail: In 1959, when I was having my scurrilous London University magazine Carnival Times produced, I was given a tour of the London printing work, Haycock Press, situated in London's Bermondsey I think. A printer came up to me, wiping his ink-stained hands on an overall, and thrust out one paw to me. Great Editorial, David, he said. Right stuff. He was Mr Joyce, William's brother. Small world.

A reader suggests: If you want to download some programmes of Lord Haw-Haw. go to <http://www.winmx.com/> install it and type in Lord Haw Haw in the search bit.

British Movement

Project 2005 and a National Socialist Folk Community.

The strategy guiding British Movement development and activity since 1998 has been first the BM policy programme Project 2000, later expanded to Project 2005. Despite what some outsiders may think and may have wrongly assumed, the project 2005 developments are on course and a major part of those developments are coming together in 2004 as British Movement moves towards putting National Socialist ideology into everyday living, particularly in the shape of an NS family and folk community.

National Socialism is built on the concept of a national folk community tied to its homeland by the roots of blood and soil, and in keeping with that ideological foundation British Movement is now moving into a planned development of a national programme of NS community activities and events. The British Movement strategy is long term, creating an environment where the youth and children in BM families are brought up to celebrate an NS calendar of social and ideological celebrations which can be handed down to future generations. It is hoped these folkish celebrations will become a permanent fixture in the BM calendar and that the example set by these events will attract nationalist and folkish minded people into BM's National Socialist network, expanding the range and scale of these events across the UK. The first of these events was held in Northern England in a combined ceremony and communal meal to celebrate the spring Equinox and naming of a child.

British Movement has produced a booklet of NS folkish ceremonies based on the guidelines laid down by the NSDAP in the 1930's and interwoven with SS family celebrations. The rituals and ceremonies have been modernised to some extent and set in a British context but will hopefully set in motion an annual cycle of activities and celebrations hosted by British Movement activists.

By design these are family events and the British Movement Women's Division (BMWD) has taken a lead role in the preparation of the NS family Community booklet and the organisation of a series of activities across the UK in 2004. The BMWD is also launching its own magazine this year, which will give a British National Socialist focus on family, folk and heritage issues.

All the above projects and activities are part of the British National Socialist Movement drive to create an alternative NS culture in Britain, with an alternative calendar of national events ceremonies.

1. Final Conflict mag #33 is just out and contains some very interesting material, including an interview with the Flemish Revisionist publisher VHO ; a feature on the right wing kosherisation of nationalism, which is akin to the left wing Zionists who became the neo-cons in Washington DC; tons of news on The Unwashed — the left wing middle class revolutionaries who promote mass immigration, homosexuality and everything else that is alien to our traditions — including special news on the Searchlight Versus Red Action feud, and Searchlight's new Operation Wedgie ; plus a feature on the history of Croatian nationalism; news, letters, three pages of reviews, Ranting Ron's (in)sane comments and much more.
2. In light of certain moves to Kosherise nationalism in Europe - specifically the visit by Gianfranco Fini, the leader of the Alleanza Nazionale in Italy, to Israel where he was gladhanded by the Jewish terrorist Ariel Sharon — Final Conflict has opened a fund to raise £1000 in order to publish nationalist material which is stridently anti-Israel and anti-N.W.O. This was launched in FC #33 and has already raised well over half the total amount, due in no small part to a very generous donation from a South London B&H activist. The materials issued will be free to all nationalists and so if B&H readers wish to support this campaign whether through a donation now, or by distributing the materials when they are published — we'd love to hear from you.
3. The Stormer #6, the Italian English-language magazine and Nadsat #2 the Portuguese English language mag and music CD are now available from FC.
4. The FC daily e-zine recently passed issue 2400. The larger weekend special edition of the e-zine is also continuing, with some wonderful in-depth features on WW2, the Talmud, the Rothschilds, Communism and Zionism, the Katyn Massacre, White Slavery and much more.
5. FC's full colour 16 page catalogue was published at the end of May. With over 500 new items alone, this really is the best merchandise list ever published — and watch our website for more new lines being added all the time.
6. FC is selling a couple of items to raise funds for our comrades in the struggle. The first is an official Blood & Honour Wales t-shirt. This features the traditional B&H logo with the word Wales below it in white and the outline of a dragon, also in white, on the right sleeve. All profits from this shirt are going to the family of our fallen comrade Stinko, the one-time bass player of Celtic Warrior. The second is a Kolovrat Freedom badge which is designed to raise funds for the jailed singer of the Russian Nationalist band Kolovrat, who was collared in central Europe for having nationalist materials in his luggage! The badge is full colour. The B&H Wales shirt costs £8.80 inc post in the UK. Sizes are M, L, XL and XXL. The Kolovrat badge is in full colour and costs £2.75 inc postage in the UK.
7. To show our growing solidarity with the Blood & Honour movement, FC has released a superb B&H enamel badge which features the well known B&H masthead and the words White Rock n Roll Resistance . These sell for £2.75 inc postage in the UK.

ENGLAND FIRST NEWS www.Englandfirst.net

1. We'd like to remind B&H readers that we are the original England First. People who are suspected fronts for various agencies have set up another EF Party but their choice of associates has made clear exactly who these people are, what they are trying to do and their aim in upsetting the nationalist cause. For more details read Blood & Honour #28, Final Conflict #33 or drop us a line at: England First, PO Box 51, Ryde, Isle of Wight, PO33.
2. Many thanks to everyone, including B&H readers, who helped us with our campaign to highlight St George's Day. Our special St George's Day stickers and business cards are still available to buy — for details see B&H issue 28 or pop by our website. This year saw many pub landlords, small businessmen and even vicars getting in touch to augment their St George's Day celebrations with materials from England First.
3. Our plans for a genuine nationalist Counter Power continue (see B&H issue 28 for details). Perhaps comrades with skills in building, plumbing, roofing, electrics and the like might like to get in touch for when work starts?
4. The EF website — www.Englandfirst.net has been overhauled of late. B&H supporters are invited to visit the site, give us their feedback and send in any suitable material to add to the breadth of issues covered by the site.
5. England First have continued to bring in more supporters and activists who are impressed by EF's radical nationalist stance, and our sensible approach to nationalist politics. This has resulted in the strengthening of existing activist groups, and the setting-up of new activist groups. We invite all B&H supporters to get in touch, read what we have to say and decide at what level they would like to support EF — whether simply subscribing to journals, or a more militant role.

THE DEATH KNOT!

The Death Knot is one of the most used symbols by (Germanic) pagans (meaning rural in Latin) around the world. It is composed of three interlinked equilateral triangles. The nine lines symbolize the nine worlds of the Norse tradition, the power of three times three. As a protector, it invokes the power of eternal unity. It signifies the universe, by way of the nine worlds in our Germanic religion:

Midgard, the world of people and the center of the universe.

Asgard, the world of the Aesir (the war gods), where one can find the hall of Valhalla as well.

Jotunheim, the world of the giants.

Svartalvheim, the realm of the dark Elves (Earthmen, Trolls, Dwarves).

Lysalvheim, the realm of the light Elves (Elves, Fairies, Nymphs).

Vanaheim, the world of the Vanes (fertility gods).

Helheim, the underworld, where all the deceased go to when they are not admitted to Valhalla.

Muspelheim, the end of the universe where there is only fire and Surtur rules over the fire giants.

Niflheim, the other end of the universe, existing only out of ice and nebula (Nifl).

The best way to imagine this is as one world on top with nine continents three-dimensionally attached to each other below.

The Death knot is stringed together, which means that one world cannot exist without one another. There has to remain a healthy balance between good and evil at all times. This knot is also known as the Valknut. This means literally the knot of the slain warriors bore this knot on their chest as a tattoo. They were the undead. Some of our ancestors sacrificed themselves by means of ritual to Woden (Odin). This meant that they didn't have anything else to lose not even their life because it already belonged to Woden. For Woden they were already dead and belonged to the Enheriar, the army of the fallen commanded by Woden himself, who would fight at the final battle against evil in the world. Those undead were the elite of the Germanic warriors. The only thing that counted for them was to die in battle in honour of Woden.

Warriors of the Suebi (a generic name for the Germanic tribes inhabiting the region now occupied roughly by north western Germany, Denmark and the Netherlands) tied their hair in such a knot, and a number of Roman documents depict Germanic warriors with the same hairstyle. The Valknut can be seen in the Viking age picture stones of Gotland, Scandinavia. These stones had semicircular areas at the top carved with scenes such as Woden or warrior entering Valhalla on Sleipnir. The Warrior or Woden is greeted by a Valkyrie (chooser of the slain) holding out a drinking horn with a knot in her hair. Sometimes the eight-legged horse is shown with two dogs or wolves. The Valknut appears below the horse's belly or near Odin. The Valknut also appears on the funeral ship excavated at Oseberg, Norway in 1904. In Britain it can be seen carved onto one of several hogback monuments at Brompton, Yorkshire, dating from the 10th century CE. Remarkable is that the figure 3 appears several times in Germanic stories, just like the figure 9. There are three classes: Jarls (Nobles), Karls (the free), and slaves, 3 gods that created the human race, 3 roots of the Tree of Life, just like the Death knot.

So to sum up the Death knot is Woden's symbol. It's three triangles represent many things, including the knot around the hanged man's neck, the three vertical levels of the nine worlds, and the interpenetration of all the realms of being by one another. Woden's knot symbolises His nature as that which inspires and unites all things. He is the dynamic whole, and the energy within matter. The Valknut is a depiction of the nine worlds, separate yet intimately bound, and also represent the many soul-parts that make up a conscious being. All of these are knotted to each other, and have His Spirit in common. To wear the Valknut in modern times has come to symbolise that the wearer has given him/herself to Woden and the war of our people, and acknowledges an inseparable bond with this cause. The expression 'It is a good day to die' is exactly the state of mind conveyed by the symbol and will be signified by the wearing of the Valknut.

The Death knot is a very heavily charged symbol and sacred. So not everyone is worthy of carrying it!! We carry it with pride!! Hail Woden.

...ODINS MARTYRS...

Britain's Odin's Martyrs and Scandinavia's Gleipne fight for POW's has now combined and become one!!

Our objective and goal is to become a very strong unified group of people to concentrate on only one issue, POW's.

Odin's Martyrs web site invites you all to come and see what we are and what we stand for. It will be updated soon with a new look, incorporating the new bond that has been formed with our European comrades.

The web site contains a list of POW's addresses from around the white world so that you can put pen to paper and write to them. Also you will find some products that can be purchased with the benefits going to POW's and their families in need of some help.

Odin's Martyrs will soon be releasing its first publication under the banner of Odin's Martyrs. All POW's can get a copy for free, but all folk that are outside of the wire can get a copy for £2.00/3 euros/$3.50USD. We must never forget folk that are locked away in a prison cell. Show them your support, show them they're not forgotten, above all, show them you care!

Odin's Martyrs is run by ex-POW's and family members and know the feeling of being inside away from friends and family, we truly understand you!! Contact us at the addresses below and check the web site out

Ultima Ratio

We would like to welcome you to B&H Great Britain and thank you for taking the time to do an interview for us. We would also like to take this opportunity to thank a band who have led by example and stayed true to all our collective beliefs, many in the resistance circles could certainly learn a thing or two from Ultima Ratio's self sacrifice and rigid line in sticking to our principles. Hail!

Can you please give us a run down on the current line up and when the band was first formed?

The band was formed about 1996. It had a terrible lot of line-up changes. The only member from the beginning on is me - Alex. At the moment I sing and play rhythm guitar, new member Andi took over bassguitar, Julian is playing lead guitar and finally there is Gerhard on drums.

Ultima Ratio - could you explain the meaning of your name and why you chose it?

It's a Latin name and means something similar to your English "The last resort". In history it was used by the Prussian (and other) kings for instance on cannons. They would have an inscription "ultima ratio regum". This meant: The last possibility, the last resort of the kings (of the king is war, after all political negotiations have failed).

Can you tell us what is going on with the scene in Germany. We understand that there are problems with bands playing there?

Well there have always been problems. Sometimes it's worse, sometimes a little better. As well it is different from one region to the other. For instance: We tried to play in the Hamburg area three times in the last three or four years. All together we managed to play nine songs. One time four, one time five, one time the police stormed the venue before we could even go on.

Your latest album Brain Washed was released recently, how has it been received and can you tell us about your change in direction musically?

Most of our friends like it a lot better than our previous releases. In other words: they think our other stuff is shit, haha! I like it myself better than our earlier material cause it contains quite a range of different styles. One of the reasons for this change is the fact that I've been listening to a lot of country music for the last few years. Most people think that this is rather strange, but I like it. There's a lot of good singers/songwriters although there not really our way politically. But at least it is a kind of white, working class, in some ways patriotic kind of music. Can you think of any other music scene of which you can say that? But there's a lot of other influences on this cd of ours too and I guess you better get yourself a copy and make up your own mind about it, before I go on talking about it.

Which bands influence you and what bands would you like to perform with?

Well certainly Ian was the main influence in my life. Not only musically but in any respect. To this day I haven't met anybody who compares to him. I think sometimes people don't realise what we owe him. That might be a little different in Britain, but in other countries I really think that a lot of times people don't see, that nobody can say where this whole thing would be today without Ian. As well there's a lot of good bands too. My personal favourites within the scene are: Warlord, Brutal Attack and Fortress.

Could you tell us a bit about the best concert that you've played at and the worse?

Hmm. I think the one I've enjoyed the most was our appearance at the Ian Stuart memorial gig in 2001. It was a great gig altogether, a very good reason and an audience that was really into it. The worst was probably one very early gig in the northeast of Germany together with Fortress. The main gig was on the Saturday, which was good. Fortress, us and a couple of other bands. But on the Friday before the organizer had a party for only a handful of people and wanted us and Fortress to play there too. The place was quite big but there was only about 20-30 people and even out of them no f...er cared. So we were playing for ourselves really, that really feels stupid.

Could you give us your top ten all time favourite songs and pick one of them and tell us why?

1. New nation
2. The Snow Fell
3. Arthurian Spirit (or is it "Arthurian times" ? Don't know at the moment, but you know that song of "Stigger's on the second album)
4. I'm Free.
5. One Law For Them
6. Skinheads in Sta-Press
7. Faith Hope and Charity
8. Outlaws
9. European Unity
10. Built Up/ Knocked Down

Although New Nation is probably not regarded as one of the Skrewdriver classics it expresses just what it is all about - a "new nation free and true".

Any closing comments?

We just have released two songs, which we have recorded over three years ago on a seven-inch vinyl. It was so hard to get this thing out on vinyl that we would appreciate if some of you would buy it. It's a limited edition of only 800. One song is a ballad in German about the river Rhine. The other one is an English track about the feelings you get watching the news. As well we are gonna record a version of Ian's "Down in the City" for an Ian Stuart compilation soon.

Thanx for the interview and all the best.

Kwelhekse's

National Socialist Black Metal speaks

Hail Surtur!! How are things? Could you give our readers a bit of insight on Kwelhekse's history?

Wotanic greetings comrade! Things could be better but what doesn't kill you, only makes you stronger right? Anyhow, the band started out somewhere in 2001 I guess (haven't got the slightest clue anymore actually), when the rest of my current band back then started to turn pussy. It started as a 2 man project with our bassplayer Pesten (Stormwolf guitarist btw) and when the main band eventually split up, we recruited some other local blackmetal people to team up. After some changes we eventually got a steady line-up: Psycho on guitars, Kaiser (ex-Faustian Moon, Stormwolf) on bass and Kwelle (ex-Faustian Moon, Garmenhord) on vocals. That line-up really had it going and lasted long actually, in which we did some very good gigs and recorded our debut demod: De Vergelding, which got very good critics. In meantime however, the reds and zog started to get their eye on us, which resulted in threats (e-mail based ofcourse, no one ever came up to us), the website getting hacked and every gig accompanied with police informing about it and uncover fucks in the audience. After a lot of shit, new bandmembers, traitors and problems I've decided to put an end to all kinds of misery so the band now only consists of Kaiser and me anymore, live we'll use session musicians. Since Kaiser and me are also proud members of B&H Vlaanderen we also turned out a B&H Vlaanderen band, which is a good thing for both us and our division (at least the latter we hope!! haha).

Congratulations on the split with Flammentod! How did you get in touch with Blackstone productions? Do you like the Flammentod part? And why is there only 2 songs of you on it?

Personally I think your side of the split reigns supreme! It was originally supposed to appear on Desastrous records as a 7" split but they've stopped apparently. Timo from Flammentod contacted me to ask if a German label could use the recording as a split with his band. And since it would've been a waste to throw away the recording and the artwork I agreed ofcourse. I don't know Blackstone at all, I just trusted Timo on it. After all, he's an active Pagan Front member so I'd surprised me that he'd fuck us over. I won't say Flammentod is my favorite underground act but it's quite original in music so for that alone already I like it.

I've seen the new website (www.kwelhekse.tk) which looks even better than the previous one. Who did the design? Haven't had any troubles yet? And what is your view on the use of multimedia for your purposes?

It was Norgaath from Grimfaug who did it, didn't even ask much for it. Just a copy of each release I ever make so it's a good deal I think and he did indeed a great job! Concerning troubles, after the release of some crappy magazine article about B&H/C18 in which Kwelhekse was also mentioned a lot of morons found their way to the site, signing shit in the guestbook. Oh well, nothing much to worry about. Only thing we did was change server for safety, we're still on the outlook for a fast and freespeech server though. We consider the internet to be a powerfull tool for propaganda purposes because it is fast and has general access. However, too many people use it to stir shit up or spread crap. I've seen that it's the precious domain of those pathetic Combat 18 supporters and what they use it for and it sickens me. However I still believe that when used properly it is a very powerfull tool to advertise, propagate and awaken our folk!!!

What are your biggest influences both musically, ideologically and lyrically?

Musically it speaks for itself I think. No one can deny that I'm not heavily influenced by Burzum and Absurd, not in the least the 2 very first NSBM bands whose albums still stand as solid as a rock!! As lyrical influences I used to gain a lot of inspiration in my pagan convictions and my love for my fatherland. Lately I've been quite inspired by the honour and glory of the Flemish SS, who I consider to be my countries biggest heroes! Hence our next effort will be a mini-album consecrated entirely on that concept in honour of them. Ideologically I can't say there's been any book, movie, speech or whatever that really influenced me. I didn't turn national solidarist overnight, it was a steadily process made by someone with common sense, open eyes and a good set of brains, as I always use to put it. Unlike most people in the NSbm scene I do know where I'm talking about, not full of shit and I'm 99% activist and only 1% musician.

You used to be fully into metal, nowadays you've got more of a skinhead thing going on, concerning looks that is. Any particular reason? Did you grow tired of the blackmetal scene?

Hahaha, the only thing that actually changed was the damn hair!!! And that was merely because I joined the army, nothing more nothing less. However, to be honest, I don't give a rat's ass anymore about the Blackmetal scene. I used to be into it because I liked the music and later thought that the people in it might have good potential!! After all, in the early days it was truly some sort of Cult where individuality was highly acclaimed and there was a strong strife to be elite!! Great was the dissappointed when I noticed that I've never seen that much degenerates packed together in my entire life. Junkies, simpleminded devil worshippers, faggots even (!!!) and people in praise of Jewry and Freemasonry and all sort of stuff!! Most of them are just plain leftwing shits!!! And even in the NSbm scene at least half the people are worthless, at least to me!! Would you take anyone from a known NS bm band serious when he states that he's into necrophilia?? I think not!

What's the meaning of the bandname anyhow? and why did you pick that particular one?

Well, some bands have entire philosophies concerning their bandname, ours is quite simple. When we started it all up we were still deep into the whole blackmetal thing. So I was looking into metaphores and compared modern nationalists with witches. Since

What are the plans for the future with the Kwelhekse horde? Btw, will we ever see the Elfenbloed demo????

Oh yeah, Elfenbloed, hehe Well, it's all finished, both artwork and pro-tape, just waiting 'till the label gets it's ass in gear. Many people asking for it so your question is no surprise at all!! It WILL kill and kick ass that's for sure!! As for Kwelhekse, we will attempt hitting the stage again in 2004, as told with sessionmembers. I can now already tell that some people in Urzamoht will reinforce us live. Looking forward to that actually, I quite wonder how many fucking bigmouths and backstabbers in the scene will turn up at gigs. As told there will be the mini-cd in honour of our Flemish SS, maybe a new split album around the end of the year and I'm thinking of doing a new shirt, since the first one got sold out in no time.

If I'm not mistaken you also play in Stormwolf, Flemish Rac? Any news on that front? Someone told me you recorded a CD with the band?

Yes, depends when it was he told you since we've already made 2 attempts to record one!! First time the sound wasn't quite satisfactory though for a cd so we used some tracks to put out as a demo. We visited the studio a second time and this time it's gonna be perfect! 10 songs with one coversong from Landser and most likely we'll put on some extra bonus stuff on it as well so it's really been worth the wait. We hope to do quite some gigs this year to promote it the best possible. There's talk already of gigs in the Netherlands, at least one already in England too and I know a couple of French that would be interested to have us over again as well so...

You are part of Blood and Honour Vlaanderen. How did you get in touch with the movement and with which B&H are you because if I'm not mistaken your country has 2 divisions.

No!!!! We only have ONE Blood and Honour division in Flanders, the other people you mentioned are not to be taken in account. They misuse our name and are in fact Combat 18 twats. They have no right whatsoever to call themselves B&H, we earned our part in the brotherhood through sincerity and a lot of activity and hard work, whereas all they do is slander us and other righteous movements on the internet. But enough about them, they do not deserve any attention anywhere by anyone. I used to have very good contacts with the local skinheads over here (at least the NS ones) and when some of them went to a meeting to discuss putting up a Flemish division they asked me along as well. The thing that drew me most to B&H was the fact that the people there looked beyond how you look and that it was an international brotherhood striving for one and the same cause: white unity! I must say that I'm very proud to be part of B&H Vlaanderen especially because I saw our division grow from a modest level to a hardworking tight division that we now are.

What is your aim, both musically and politically?

Politically I fight first and foremost for Flemish independance. That might sound strange considering being part of an international brotherhood but I believe that one must first fix things in his surroundings before he take on a broader perspective. It is also in honour of my forefather who fought and died for this country only to see it going to waste by the hands of anti-Flemish parasites that are the Belgian politicians. They use Flanders wealth and prosperity to keep Wallonia up and running in order to virtually keep Belgium alive! I have nothing against Wallonians, they ARE white brothers but linguistically, culturally and historically we have nothing in common at all and we're only forced to live together all because of a historical mistake! On top of that an independent Flanders would be strong right-wing republic making the way clear to solve the migration problem and weeding out the Zionist root over here! Just imagine the possibilities that would create to continue the fight on a European level. Musically my aim is similar but moreover to get people to see what's happening around them and facing them with the real enemy, which is not the Church (true evil black metal people do wage wars against christianity you know...) but ZOG whose damp shadow darkens the whole of the Old continent. I do realise that my political aim will most likely remain an utopia for me to experience but then again I don't do this for myself but for the generations to come. And that's what makes me mad when I meet people that have turned their backs on the movement because "it's not going to happen anyway". I always have the (somewhat misplaced) image in front of me of Lenin speeching on a crate of beer for a handful of people that the revolution will come and days later the whole of Russia being on the barricades. One day Europe will experience the same!

As a political activist why do you limit yourself to the blackmetal scene? I mean, isn't it your aim to get your message to reach as much people as possible? Then why do the effort to spread it in a scene that's even beyond underground?

I doubt that even half the people in the scene really are into the ideology and only praise it because of the extreme image! Well, you are right in a way. I sometimes wonder how many people really are what they act like as well. But then again, each scene grows, older fans get out of it, new youngster start to pick it up. Well, even if only 2 young kids start to reflect on it and make the right decision, that's already reason enough for me to go through with it. I must say that the idea also grew already to try and do something more mainstream aside my current bands to reach out to a broader audience but then again I must honestly say that at the moment I still lack the skills to do so and to be honest: it just wouldn't be me. I'm an extreme man in many ways and since music is a personal expression my only way to do it is to make extreme music, that's the sad part of it. And I don't quite limit myself to the blackmetal scene, I'm active in the RAC scene as well and most important of all: I go out on the streets almost every time to attend demo's, flyer actions, etc so I do reach quite some people in a way.

Ok Surtur, thanks a lot for putting up the time to answer the whole questionnaire. I wish you a lot of succes with all of your future projects and political struggle. Any last words to conclude?

Thank you a lot as well for taking the effort to support us by publishing this interview. I'd like to thank my brothers and sister in Blood and Honour Vlaanderen, B&H West- and East London, B&H Netherlands, Midgard France and Brotherhood Deutschland for being true brothers in arms, the Wolves from Absurd and Der St rmer, Timo Flammentod, J r my Warage and Fanny from Malesanctus for being the few worthy NSbm people around and all who supported and still support us offcourse. Het ochtendgloren nadert, de Vergeldinghe naakt, voor de bastaardkinderen Zion's is de tijd opgeraakt!!

BLOOD AND HONOUR GIG REVIEWS

Blood and Honour Vlaanderen concert 13th December 2003

Panzerj ger, Nordfront, Kommando Skin, Whitelaw

2003 being nearly finished and having been quite an active one for our division (lots of demo s, speecnights, concerts, etc) we decided to end it all with a small but cozy gig! This time, a sleepy little town in East-Flanders had been chosen to host this night of radical music. Excellent choice it seems since the whole evening passed without any trouble, neither in the hall nor for the inhabitants and even Zog s puppets didn t even show up (the town didn t even have it s own police corps anyway, haha).

First band up were French Panzerj ger. At our very first concert they were present as well helping us out with an excellent gig so this was our chance to rethank them. A decision definitely not to be regretted since they put up one hell of a performance. Playing much tighter than last time I saw them and giving us excellent versions of all their greatest songs. Public favourite undisputably was M.A.J. but also Sous le regard des Dieux got a lot of response! Very good show by a bunch of dedicated activists!!

Next band Nordfront neither was unfamiliar to our division. They ve already came to play some times for us and each time they give the utmost best of themselves! Their sound has somewhat a metal edge to it, which I personally like a lot!! And the crowd as well it seems!! Being only a 3 man band and putting up such power and enthousiasm in the music is something very few bands is granted, but these Germans have no trouble at all putting it all up! And offcourse a chilling version of Landsers Arisches Kind finished it all off with Aryan perfection and profession. Kommando Skin had been invited as well and proved to be public favourite. This German band, containing an Ultima Ratio member, got everyone going and proved to be a very technicall balanced band! Their sound is quite original and with a performance that seemed to absorb all energy in the hall one can only say that this German act will only grow bigger and bigger!

Last band were the Whitelaw lads! Benny and compagny always manage to get the job done 100% and tonight was no difference!

Playing all their hits like Take the salute and Fetch the noose they got the crowd going along like crazy, making everyone Whitelawed! Frontman Benny even had brought a real live noose (unfortunately without anyone in it, haha) and Tiethor (Steelcapped Strength, Les Villains) and Suck (Les Villains) were invited on stage to help out during Rapist. I couldn t have thought of a better band to end this excellent evening, well done chaps!!!

Everyone agreed that this was a most enjoyable evening and many came up to say that this was without any doubt the most fun gig ever, a big compliment I d say! Blood and Honour Vlaanderen wishes to thank the bands for having come over to play, the many people that made the effort to come over, Tiethor and I. for having helped out and offcourse our own crew for the hard work that they ve put up. We hope to see you all back alive and kicking in 2004 as well!!

note: Due to technical failure no pictures were left of the gig unfortunately. Our apologies for that!

Fallen Heroes Memorial B&H Vlaanderen 16th November 2003

Traditionally november is a month where everyone commemorates the dearly deceased. Even already in ancient times (just think about the German Deadfest -to hell with Halloween!!) and none less in these modern times as well! And as nationalist it s even more the month to honour the ones that gave their lives for the European battle and thought in an attempt to let us, the youth, live in a free Europe!! Hence came the Dutch initiative to hold a memorial in Flanders to honour the fallen!

The Flemish delegation gathered shortly after noon in Antwerp to depart to an unknown destination, which later proved to be the German military cemetary in Lommel!

This cemetary which is the largest German warcemetary abroad (40.000 fallen comrades!!) contains both soldiers of the first and second Great Brotherwar so it s was ideal to express our (posthumous) gratitude towards them who fought to contain the Bolchewistic treath! In good tradition attemps were already made to stop us from when we entered the mainplace but after a small word we could finally enter the ground (albeit with 2 watchdogs on our backs) Instead of taking the most obvious place to hold the memorial, being the crypt, the option was made to have it on the cemetary ground itself. On a monument there, in the midst of those thousands and thousand graves the Dutch/German representative and the Flemish representative gave a small speech stating that one should never forget the sacrifice those brave men brought and that it should give us the strength and courage to continue our fight. Touching words that, even more with the weary weather and the sombre view of the graves, didn t miss their effect. After the placement of 2 big flowerpieces all present sang I had a brother in Arms and candles were lit as a token that the flame still burns within many. In the closing event a little improvised social was held near the cemetary before everyone carried on the trip back home. This sober but touching memorial showed that our youth still holds the respect for all those that gave their life and soul for their ideals and that it is prepared to carry on the battle where it sadly ended for so many... Hereby I d like to thank the people of Blood and Honour Netherlands and Green-Right Movement for having taken this good initiative! Well done comrades!!

Flemish-British Friendship gig: 24th January 2004

Organised by B&H Vlaanderen featuring: Stormwolf, Section88, Celtic Warrior, Warhammer

Another start of a New Year full of activities for B&H Worldwide. For Blood and Honour Vlaanderen the first activity was a friendship gig with our brothers from the English divisions. About 350 comrades showed up for this gig, amongst them many of our brothers from other divisions such as the Dutch, English, German, Finnish, French, Swiss, Austria... The evening started off with a powerful opening by Flemish B&H band Stormwolf (Their CD should be out any day now through Rampage Productions!).

The set began traditionally with an instrumental version of the Flemish national anthem after which the band exploded into their titlesong Stormwolf! This was the start of over half an hour straight in the face Hatecore with a definite metal edge that really got the appreciation of the crowd. The last song being a coverversion of Legion88's Thule showed Suck from Les Vilains coming on stage to reinforce Robby Knobby on vocals making the song even more powerful!

Next up were Section88 one of the bands that played on one of our first concerts. Those British Bootboys (and girl!) sure know how to kick it off drawing the crowd immediately into their English styled Rac-Oi! Songs such as Vikings in our veins, British Bootboys... were eagerly swallowed by the audience! We see a big future for these guys if they start to support the good English football team and don't forget people on their thankslist! After Section88 it was time for the veterans of Celtic Warrior supported by Smelly Dieter, one of our local musicians. As always they played a brilliant set full of classics, explosive and energetic. The crowd absolutely went mad. Then the moment everyone waited for, the first European gig of Warhammer back with the Blood and Honour Brotherhood! We must say the singer is very impressive when he barks into the microphone. Brilliant music and very powerful singing, they sure know the meaning of the word body language. It also reflected on the pogo which was very wild. One thing, these guys really have a strange accent, the chorus was well understood yet the lines were in strange northern dialect.

Another gig which shows unity between all divisions of B&H. Together we are strong and we will beat the enemy within and outside.

London Edge 31st January 2004

Woden, Pureblood, Celtic Warrior, Brutal Attack

We travelled the short distance from East to South London on a wet January day, it was the first gig of the year and luckily for us it was another B&H event in our capital, since last year, events have spiralled in our city after a lean time due to excessive police operations all aimed at stopping Englishmen born and bred from taking part in legal activities because it might offend some spongers from some far off part of the globe. But were back. The line up was a cracking one with a new band from West London playing called Pureblood, Woden from South East London who were Eye of Odin but with line up change comes a new name, Celtic Warrior from Wales and local lads Brutal Attack.

The venue was blinding and one of the best in the B&H arsenal me thinks and everything was lined up for a great show.

First up to a packed floor were Woden, Mick, Titch and Lemmy being joined by a new member and they rocked! A good tight set which really pleased the large contingent of metallers present and Mick's stage show is equalled by none in our scene that I've seen and Titch's guitar strap covered in studs was a real eye opener as well. Hopefully a new cd will be out shortly, we've been waiting for too long now! Pureblood, in what I have since learnt was their first live outing took the honours next, lead singer Charlie used to sing for Another

Charlie singing these boys are gonna go far, a big surprise a brilliant version of Ian Stuart's Too Much Confusion, and Man Enough which he sang on one of the Legion's cds really were the highlights of the set in my opinion. I look forward to hearing more from this outfit. Celtic Warrior seemed to be a little inactive last year, I saw them at the ISD but not much else so it was great to catch them again in all their glory, bad boy Billy never lets you down and there always an outfit who get everyone going and joining along. Let the Battle Begin is always my favourite but then again there is always so many Warrior classics the set was just a joy, and things only got better. Brutal Attack the flagship band of our movement and Ken up front are living reminders of who we are and where we come from, songs old and new were played the legendary Tales of Glory setting the tone from the outset and every one was a belter, the locals and those who had travelled all had a field day and the dance floor heaved.

The venue continued until two so after BA the evening continued for some and we socialised until the early hours before the short trip home, which was a nice change. Another blinding gig in all aspects, top venue, large crowd, fantastic line up and no hassles. The local community also had the opportunity to see there is still literally hundreds of the true still fighting for our homeland and supporting the musical resistance.

BLOOD & HONOUR SPAIN PRESENTS THE 4TH ANNIVERSARY CONCERT

LEGITTIMA OFFESA; AVALON; FRONTALKRAFT

13th March 2004 was the date set for the anniversary concert of the forming of B & H Spain. Sections from East London and the newly formed Kent Divisions took to the airways and to support their good comrades in Spain. We arrived on Friday evening to a warm welcome and were whisked straight off to the newly opened local bar. We were joined by good comrades from Germany and Italy along with our hosts where we spent the evening chatting and speaking about future events.

Saturday - the concert was to be held in the centre of Madrid. The gig was held in a bar with a large hall and when we arrived there were already a large number of people there from right across Spain and Portugal. There was a very good atmosphere in the venue. First to take the stage was the Italian band Legittima Offesa, we had not seen this band before and we were impressed, they sang mainly in Italian but they did some old Oi covers in English. They got the place warmed up and everybody was raring to go, looking forward to catching these guys again. Next up was the mighty Avalon, it's a long time since we have seen them play live and we were really looking forward to it. They went straight into a tight set and were rolling off the numbers from all three albums and some Skrewdriver stuff thrown in for good measure. The Spanish loved them. They had some really good musicians and they played excellently. Last to take the stage were the German band Frontalkraft, this was the first time we had seen this band but they came highly recommended. They had the place rocking in no time. They were very heavy and fast and went down a storm. All in all the night was a great success and another victory for the Spanish/British friendship that has grown very strong in the last few years. We salute our good comrades for an excellent concert and top hospitality.

Violent Storm Memorial ~ 27-03-04 ~ England

Sadly and suddenly on Friday March 13th 1992, Brian and Darren Sheeley, Paul Cassey and Jason (Jask) Oakes were tragically taken from us in a car accident on their way to play a concert in Spain.

Still our love for them is as strong today as it was on that faithful night, they will never be forgotten.

Your spirit will emerge from the shadows, your memories still live on in our hearts, for every warrior who falls, a thousand shall rise. Until Valhalla, rest in peace.

Once again that time of the year had arrived all too soon for us to honour and mark the memory of our lost brothers ~ Violent Storm. With people travelling from England, Scotland, Wales, Ulster, Finland, Germany, Holland, Italy, Spain, America and even Australia and everywhere in between. All making the effort for Violent Storm in this the 12th memorial concert.

Arriving at the selected venue within plenty of time we decided to collect a few refreshments from the bar. Out of respect to this being a memorial concert many of us kept the drinking to a reasonable level. Then it was time to meet up with comrades old and new. At this particular venue no banners, flags or merchandise were allowed on display, which although unusual, we respected it.

By the now the place was filling up with a large crowd of comrades all eagerly awaiting the first band. Numbering at the very least 350 comrades. Before the first band appeared up on stage, there was time to purchase this years Violent Storm Memorial T-shirts. Which I am sure we shall all wear with pride. The money collected as ever going to the families of our lost comrades which is the very least we can do.

First band up on stage were the new boys from the north-east, Strikeforce UK. Playing many great Skrewdriver covers, Smash the Reds by No Remorse, with Red Enemy and IRA by Warhammer. During one or two songs you actually thought you were listening to the original bands! A very talented band who impressed all, an excellent start to a brilliant evening!

After a short wait up stepped Section 88. Playing all their well known by now classics from their recent debut cd album. Including British Bootboys, Wall of Lies and Vikings. This band has become a well-respected and familiar B&H name not only here but also all across Europe and beyond! As ever a superb set of unique Section 88 songs.

Next came the Aryan warriors namely Avalon. With a wonderful set which included Ian Stuart Donaldson and Skrewdriver's Tomorrow Belongs to Me. A show of a very talented band who have a continuously loyal following.

With no time wasted the next band taking to the stage was Legion of St. George. In typical machine gun pace with Hellbound, Buried Alive, Comrades til the End, In the Footsteps of Heroes, In Defence of the Realm, all the crowd favourites. By now the crowd were truly enjoying the atmosphere of comradeship and White Unity. Which I am sure is just how Violent Storm would have wanted it!

Another popular band, which has grown from strength to strength is Crusade. Who played a splendid set of their and Skrewdriver covers. Including Tomorrow Belongs to Me and many of our favourites from their first and second albums. A great RAC to Oi! sound at a real flowing speed!

Then came Pureblood who also had the honour to play to the memory of Violent Storm. With the song Rock Against the Commies summing up the entire atmosphere, hail, hail, White Power Rock n Roll! Yet another leading band with a sound reminiscent of the early Oi! and RAC bands.

Then with Landser in English resounding throughout the venue and a few more drinks in hand there followed a short break. After which everyone gave an open handed welcome once again to the mighty Nemesis from Scotland. Playing a wonderful selection of their own songs and a few brilliant Skrewdriver covers. From Back With a Bang, Blood and Honour, and a song to the memory to Kriss Donald from Glasgow. Who was kidnapped, tortured and beaten to death just for being White. Following on with some more Nemesis songs, which included to the crowd's approval Skrewdriver's Free My Land.

Next came the German band Blue Max. After their successful first album and second visit to England, it was great to get the chance to see this band again. Singing in English and German with a fast but not heavy sound. Starting with You Gotta Go, which had the whole crowd singing along! Followed by Anti-fa, March and Fight, and Opa by Landser. Although many of us may not understand German it didn't seem to matter from the size of the crowd dancing along up front!

Wales very own, Celtic Warrior were up with that easily recognisable voice of Billy. They take their name from the Violent Storm album title, whom we were here to honour. Straight into Let the Battle Begin, Rise to the Wings, Shadow of the Wolf, Ole Ole, Invader, Commie Scum, and Our Pride is Our Loyalty. After the crowd has showed their appreciation, it was time to remind us all why we were here. To pay respects to the life and times and all too sudden loss of Violent Storm. The atmosphere fell from party to silence as we all stood for a minute's silence. Which was quickly followed by the appropriate Violent Storm and See You in Valhalla! As guaranteed, Celtic warrior gave us all a feeling of pride in our hearts. Proud to be here, proud to be white and proud to remember Violent Storm. A really apt tribute to the everlasting memory of Violent Storm.

After which it was time to give a White welcome to Whitelaw. Playing straight into pure Whitelaw with Fetch the Noose, Take the Salute, Skinhead Heart for Jock and Justine, As the Drum Beats, We're Coming for You!, and a few new songs, including What You Gonna Do? With Benny being outspoken as ever and rightly so! An astounding end to what had become a marvellous show of White Aryan Unity to Violent Storm.

All bands were as excellent as ever especially on this special occasion. All showing that this was not just a memorial concert but a celebration to the life and times and achievements of those white warriors! Whom I am sure were looking down upon us in approval. As ever-another fantastic show for Blood and Honour Worldwide. A truly atmospheric tribute to a band who had done so much, yet still had so much to offer. Yet still live on in our hearts and minds through the band Celtic Warrior. Our one and only Blood and Honour have yet again shown the world how a concert can and should be organised with true professionalism and no ZOG interference.

See You in Valhalla brothers, Violent Storm 13-03-92 R.I.P.

News From the Frontline

WARNING! WARNING!: there is information from very reliable sources that three media/hack infiltrators are within the right wing network at present, two up north and one down south. All though it is more 99.9% these people are trying to do highly lucrative exposes within nationalist political groups for slanderous election run up shows, it pays to be vigilant, especially at cross over points. So be careful.

The forces of law and order have also been trying to persuade some of our supporters to give info on concerts and buy merchandise for them, and if true large amounts of money and transport have been offered as incentives.

One supporter from Coventry has been visited at home on three occasions and even had a hand written note asking the above posted through his letterbox!

H Division: B&H welcomes the newest division to our armoury H division, it is with much pride that we welcome many old stalwarts and many new faces to march along with us under the legend Blood & Honour H Division. The new unit has met all requirements and has all ready set the scene alight in their area with many new activities. Congratulations and welcome aboard. To cover the growing biker fraternity giving support and skinheads on two wheels, B&H M.C. has also taken its first ride to concerts and rallies. Web site at www.hdivision.com.

B&H Wales: would like to thank everyone who bought a B&H t-shirt, all the proceeds went directly to Stinko's family. We managed to raise £150 at the last B.A gig. Thanks once again to all those who showed support, there are some shirts left and are being sold through Final Conflict for 8 pound plus postage. 88

N.S.V March/Demo: 13/03/03: At the start of each New Year I personally long for the month of march since it is tradition that the NSV (Nationalist Student Union) holds its annual march! Last year's one was in the red bastion of Leuven, where we encountered many many Antifa counter demonstrators, which always gives the march its unique character. This year however it was Antwerp again that got the honour of welcoming the nationalistic resistance. The theme this year was A Free Europe and multicultural Antwerp (aside from the massive muslim and African invasion that can clearly be seen in the streets Antwerp also contains Flanders concentration) is without a doubt the most appropriate field of battle to spread out this message. As always several hundred militants were gathered from all ages, classes and subcultures. This year also some metalpeople bothered to team up for which we give massive hails!! Arriving at the place to be it appeared that ZOG's puppets had been quite busy kicking in the unofficial Antifa countermarch. Truckloads had been arrested and the die-hards that still remained were cornered and kept far away from our demonstration. Who would've thought? The march started out showing our big numbers and our voices echoing through the streets of Antwerp, opening many a window to check out what was going on. I could spot members from about all important and serious Flemish nationalistic movements such as B&H Vlaanderen of course (that arrived with quite a big delegation), VNJ, NATION, Green-right, Voorpost, even Vlaams Blok chief De Winter, etc which made it clear that even though sometimes there are differences in approach when it comes to it, we can all march together for the common cause! After all: united we stand, divided we fall, although there is still 1 small boysclub in Flanders that refuses to understand this. Oh well, that's their problem!

After about an hour we arrived back at the starting point and after a speech of some of the organising members and a solemn chanting of The Flemish Lion we could all look back on a very successful march! No troubles, no Antifa, many people, one message: EUROPE FREE!!!!

Greece Calling, Greece Calling!

Hello comrades! Here is some news from Hellas.

DEFAMATION is a new NS oi! / streetrock band from the north and soon will be have a demo with songs in Hellenic language and some in English!

B&H Hellas band NO SURRENDER have wrote 3 new songs and cover in 'evil' from the 4skins maybe for a split with DEFAMATION. Also their mini CD "Hail The Year Zero" is gonna be out in April from Streetfighting label France. Finally their 5 songs for split with Ukrainian bands SOKYRA PERUNA, TSYRULNIA and BANNERWAR from Hellas have not been able to find any label yet... so we wait to see what happens in the near future.

B&H Hellas division had a concert on March 25th in memory of the 1821 rebels with the bands TOTAL CLEANSING and THREAT playing. THREAT is back! A WP oi! band until 1997 from Trikala City they have wrote some songs for their first demo CD. Also they will play their first gig at a B&H Hellas concert! Hail Hellenic RAC!!

2.000 nationalist / NS and true patriots were on the streets again for the GOLDEN DAWN's march in the memory of Imia where in 1996 Turkish scum killed 3 officers of our navy and the treacherous politicians betrayed our country!

Blood and Honour Scotland - A Decade of Defiance.

WWW.HIGHLANDER.UK.NET

Highlander, PO BOX 2206, Uddingston, Glasgow, G71 5XD

As the Blood and Honour Scotland, Highlander Division, enters our tenth year of existence we can cheerfully report that our activities and support are at an all time high and we can further report that we have a year, brimful of racial activities planned for the remainder of the year. These activities will include a fundraising gig in May and all monies raised at that event will go to help finance the political, racial struggle in Scotland. We also have our annual St. Andrews day gig to look forward to in November and we have two camps organised for this year also. Our annual summer camp will be held in July and our Halloween family camp will of course be held at the end of October.

However Blood and Honour Scotland are not just about camps and gigs, we are fully aware that our country, like the rest of the UK is in dire peril. Scotland has become a disproportionate dumping ground for economic parasites, guising as "Asylum seekers", who flock to our United Kingdom from all over the third world. Added to this horrific phenomenon we have a flourishing non-white "Scottish" population who are becoming more numerous, and in some cases more aggressive, year after year. The recent murder and mutilation of young Kriss Donald in Glasgow is testimony to that.

Thirdly, in Edinburgh, we have the ZOG circus that pretends to be a devolved Scottish parliament. That Holyrood halfway house for failed politicians, inferior half-men, commies and career chancers are an embarrassment to all things Scottish. These self serving clowns, and sadly they are all a waste of a white skin, are pleading for more immigrants to flood our land as well as embarking on an anti white campaign called "One Scotland, many cultures", aimed at deracinating the entire Scottish population.

This means that our Highlander Division must try to redress the balance and get our patriotic racial message out through as many avenues as possible. In the last year we have re-launched our Highlander Newsletter and on the 20th of April our website will eventually go online, thus allowing the Scottish public, and more importantly British youths, access to the truth and to our racial message through music.

The Scottish Highlander band, Nemesis, has also been playing their part in our struggle. They have recently played the Violent Storm memorial gig as well as the St. Andrew's day gig. Vocalist John has continued on the ballads sets too. In the last year he has played at our two Scottish camps, a Scottish political meeting, a POW fundraiser in Geordieland, as well as the Rudolf Hess memorial march in Germany and the Zaragoza memorial gig in Spain. As we write this article, John is further scheduled to play a ballads gig in the Czech Republic. Nemesis bassist, Chris has also been gigging with Warhammer and the relatively new band Strikeforce UK. On top of this he has addressed a political meeting in Scottish Borders and will be doing his comedic stand up routine, (as advertised in the now infamous BBC Panorama program), at the May, Scottish fundraiser. Veteran white nationalist drummer, Sticks, has been working with Nemesis recently. The band is working on some new music at the moment and it is hoped that they will be back in the studio before the year is out.

As part of the wider Blood and Honour Great Britain movement, Highlander will continue to spread our 14 Words message through music, literature, word of mouth and militant power activism.

If it takes us another 10 or even 20 years we will steadfastly oppose ZOG's "White genocide manifesto". 14 Words!

Report by Steve Cartwright.

Blood & Honour Bohemia reports:

POW concert Bohemia, 27th March

We decided to make this concert to support people who are currently in prison here, especially Kolovrat singer Denis who was arrested at Prague airport for carrying NS stuff and one friend of ours who is in prison for a hate crime.

There were scheduled four bands — Ortel from Czech republic, Before the War from Slovakia, Ultima Frontiera from Italy and Frontalkraft from Germany. Unfortunately the Italians couldnt come because the police wouldnt give a passport to the drummer and the Ortel lads had a car accident on their journey to the concert. So they were at once replaced by two Czech bands — Adler and Blizzard. The concert was near our capital Prague, about 30 km east from the city.

It started at 9 o'clock with Adler to play first on the stage. They are a new band from here, but they played a good set. I think they will soon become one of the top from here, as they are young and full of energy.

Second band on the stage was Before the War from Slovakia. They played heavier stuff and are becoming a dignified successor to metal legends — Excalibur. People were really enjoying their performance and started to quickly get into the right mood.

Next band was Blizzard from our country. They are one of the best from here and it could be seen also at this concert. They started with couple of their songs and then played several covers of the most popular bands from here — Buldok, Kratky Proces and Biely Odpor. A female singer who plays with them sang the second half of their set and she also added some Skrewdriver covers. The crowd was absolutely ecstatic when they finished. People were looking forward to the last band of the evening — German comrades Frontalkraft, especially the German audience which was quite big at this event. Sometime around eleven o'clock our friends from ZOG's oppressive machine arrived because some local dedicated ZOG ass licker called them when he saw nationalists gathering in the village.

The concert continued, but it had to finish at one o'clock in the morning, otherwise the police would have stormed in. So when Frontalkraft came on the stage they had only about 40 minutes to play. They started to play their songs and Germans (especially those who arrived with the band) went mad and were dancing and singing all the time. Frontalkraft also played several Landser songs — Braunherd am Wedding which was answered by the crowd and finished their performance with Landser's Ian Stuart song.

The attendance was about 350 people, mostly from Bohemia and Germany, also some Slovaks were present. The gig was a great success — all money was raised for Dennis and our friend.

Ballad evening in Bohemia, 17th April

It's now a three years tradition for us to make this birthday concert, but previously it was always without any foreign band present. So this time we decided to invite one of the best present-day balladers — John from Scottish band Nemesis. We always did this concert for only invited people to avoid the presence of police informers. About 50 people gathered in North of Bohemia to enjoy this special evening.

John played the whole evening so he decided to divide his set into two parts with a little break. He started at 9 o'clock and finished at around 1 o'clock in the morning. He played songs from his own band Nemesis, Skrewdriver classics and Nordic Thunder, Brutal Attack, No Remorse, Griffin and Landser famous songs. One of the songs, Road to Valhalla was dedicated to two young skinheads who were shot in this town few months ago.

People were really enjoying this party, one of the songs (Free my land) was accompanied by our sacred salute, which is forbidden here, but it was really nice to hear once again whole pub saluting. No ZOG ass lickers showed up during the party, just pure fun and white comradeship. See you all there next year again.

Street Demonstration 17th April: Gladenbach (Hessia, Germany) Skinheads March

On the 17th of April another demonstration took place at Gladenbach. Because of the cowardly attacks by the reds on nationalists (injuring people, destroyed cars...) at the last demonstration in Gladenbach, the Aktionsbündnis Mittelhessen called for resistance, so we answered the call. It was the third demonstration at Gladenbach. Long time before the march both sides tried to mobilize as many activists as possible. The reds called for a big Nazi-hunting day, but the reality was another red farce: only 100 counterdemonstrators and most of them were just normal citizens, only a few of the unwashed autonomous leftwingers. The police came with about 2000 riot cops and used gas and pepperspray. The whole demonstration ran quiet except for one or two incidents, where the reds came unstuck. After the march there were some excellent speeches especially by C. Worch. Result: when the going gets hot the reds stay at home with their mommies! he he

Croatia Awake!

As I live in this country whose freedom has been built on the bones of thousands of warriors who fought and died for independence for more than a thousand years, sometimes it is hard to believe that I live in a supposed European civilized country, rather than some banana republic on a Caribbean island. Day by day it is becoming clearer that public opinion in our country doesn't mean a thing. How do you explain the fact that more than half the population of Croatia is against entering the EU, and even more are against NATO, but all of the important political parties tell us that EU and NATO is in our best interests, and that it is the only solution. The same thing is happening with cooperation with the tribunal for war crimes in the Haag, and I can still remember how these same politicians organized demonstrations against the Haag two years ago. It is truly impressive how politicians are skillful in changing sides. We could actually change our national anthem too Skrewdriver's House of Treason. Off course ZOG is even active here, so recently we witnessed the arrest of three skinheads in Zagreb who edited a magazine, their houses were raided, even our national flag was taken away as evidence, ironic isn't it. They printed two editions and stand accused of spreading hatred. But, we fought back! At the beginning of April, the first White Power concert in Croatia was organized. It was in Istra, and Italian band from Varese, Civico 88 played at the concert. Skullcrusher were to play but sadly couldn't make it. About 40 comrades from Croatia, Slovenia and Italy attended the event, and everything went just fine.

Just before the concert, we released the third edition of our fanzine Patriotic Voice despite the threats from ZOG and the media that we can expect the same destiny as our comrades from Zagreb. Also, we released a documentary film on VCD about the killings of foreign reporters and solidarity activists in Palestine subtitled and synchronized in the Croatian language. We believe it is the best way to show our people who is really behind the terrorist atrocities being perpetrated in the Middle East.

At this time, there are some preparations for establishing an NSBM record house in Rijeka by name of Grimness Records. Panzerfaust is first Croatian NSBM project, which will be released through Grimness Records, due to legal reasons it will probably be released as a CD-R. More NSBM releases are planned in the future, as members of some bands are National Socialists. Positive thing is that more and more people in the metal community are declaring their N.S. sympathies and support.

There are many plans for the future, comrades from Osijek are planning their fanzine, and we (Crusader) are now working on a detailed NS archive about the history of our land, skinhead scene, nationalist history, articles of nationalists, pictures, and so on. It will be in the Croatian and English language. But our main goal is to unite and clean up our scene, as we could finally be able to create B&H chapter here, and to become part of the white race's global resistance network. Petar (Crusader)

Veneto Front Skinheads: the ongoing trial of VFS comrades has restarted, the majority of our members facing charges and under investigation have been acquitted, all have remained true and the back bone of our movement. We have continued with our campaign to abolish the law Mancino (205) which makes it illegal for anyone to oppose their multi racial society, to this end we handed in a massive petition. On this action the VFS is active in every city of the North East, holding very successful banquets in city plazas with political debates and conferences. After the Italian banking scandals the VFS is promoting many meetings with prominent and militant leaders of our movement. It is important to know the VFS predicted these malpractices years ago, when all others stayed silent. We are showing to all in the Italian political spectrum that we are prepared to demonstrate against these injustices and are the true voice of the Italian resistance. The VFS has been helping comrades from countries on our immediate borders who also oppose the injustices perpetrated by mainly ex communists and in some cases resident communists still active in their countries ruling bodies and Governments. In the last few months there has been a fantastic musical awakening within the groups in our areas, resulting in the production of much good quality music and our bands are being rewarded with many concerts all over Europe.

White Nationalist Baby Magazine: WNB magazine is a non-profit White publication for babies, parents, and parents to be in our movement. We specialize in bringing you honesty, information, and sometimes controversy, about the issues that affect you, your children, your family, and ultimately, the future of our White society. Explore parenting tips and resources focusing on pregnancy, fertility, family, babies, and White Nationalism. This magazine is totally 100% non-profit. All proceeds go to POWs, white families and groups who fund WN charities. WNB also has an online forum. There you can discuss baby issues, pregnancy, before birth and beyond. You can also find a support system that can help you stick to your WN instincts, believe in your parenting abilities and have the freedom to talk about it. Preservation of our white race is of the highest law. We must secure the existence of our race and a future for White children. And we must do this by teaching our children White heritage. We must stabilize White family traditions by focusing on the fabric of family and pass them on to our offspring. Join us in our fight for a Whiter brighter future.

26,000 Asylum seekers have been expelled!!! by the Dutch. MPs in the Netherlands passed a controversial law for the mass expulsion of 26,000 failed asylum seekers from the country. They can do it, so can we!

Nemesis: have been kept busy over the last wee while, since the release of "The Forgotten Soldier", we have recorded the German / Scottish friendship c.d with the great German band Sleipnir, which consists of 12 tracks 6 tracks from Nemesis and 5 from Sleipnir and 1 track with split vocals called "Freundshaft", this c.d is a mix of white power rock n roll and ballads. and is available from www.wolfzeit.net Also recorded was the 1 track for the landser tribute / fundraising CD (White covers) which was a cover version of the landser song "Ian Stuart". (if you can get hold of this c.d buy it as it goes towards helping the court cost etc of the band members currently serving time in ZOG'S gulags) On the gig front we have been quite due to recurring drummer problems, but we managed a few songs at the St Andrews day gig in Scotland with Andy (warlord) on drums. We also played the Violent Storm memorial this year, when Al (crusade) kindly stepped in last minute, (cheers for that Al). John has also been busy on the ballad front, playing at the Rudolf Hess march in Germany last year, which was a fantastic honour, John also played in Spain at the memorial concert for 3 young comrades who died in a car crash 3 years ago and more recently played in the Czech Republic. As for the future, due to personal commitments involving John the band should be out of action on the gig front till the end of the year. In the meantime we will be continuing the fight for the 14 words and supporting our Highlander division of Blood and Honour.

B&H Slovenia says NO to a mosque in Ljubljana: It was in the 14th Century that the Ottoman empire formed and started to invade Europe with sword & fire as stated in the Koran. Their army was huge, well organised and it was full of muslim fanatics. It's because of nations like Greece, Serbia, Croatia and Slovenia that the invaders couldn't get further into Europe as they had heavy losses on these territories. The Ottoman soldiers came to Vienna, but their forces were so depleted that they had to retreat. A lot of people in these parts rose to defend their culture and faith against the overwhelming muslim odds and many died because of that. Still their fight was not in vain and the Ottomans lost their power in the 16th Century and retreated. Their empire existed until the end of the 1st World War and Turkey was formed upon their remaining land. The consequences of this invasion was big muslimisation which succeeded only in one part of the whole territory (Bosnia & Herzegovina) which is today majorly still muslim. Other than that they have a couple of mosques in these nations but the public opinion is still very much against them, the only nation that hasn't got a mosque is Slovenia.

Of course while entering the EU a mosque is a must have or you endanger civil rights, so our politicians with the back up of the left wing and organisations like Amnesty International started to waiver our constitution and that we must build it and support our fellow slovenians (immigrants mostly from Bosnia and Albania) in worshipping their god and culture. Well here the problems arise: 1. The 50,000 muslims living here are or were immigrants, 2. As stated above they were invaders in our land for two centuries and 3. This is not our culture!!! The left wing made some surveys of public opinion and it showed that around 70% of Slovenians don't want the mosque to be built. So our corrupt politicians and other scum have made plans to build the mosque in Ljubljana (capital cities are always most liberal) and decided that acts against the building can't take place on the country scale. That means we couldn't gather petitions for a referendum that would ban the mosque from Slovenia once and for all. Very democratic indeed.

Still some nationalist parties which some of us (B&H Slovenia) are members and some individuals who are into law and politics managed to find a loop hole. We could make a petition for the referendum against the mosque in the local Ljubljana area and fight against in the ground terms. This means that the petition is not against the mosque, but against building it there because of the architecture and the noise that the neighbours will have to suffer etc...

Meanwhile the idea of the mosque grew from a building with one minaret/tower to a 4 minaret/tower complex with residential houses, muslim restaurants, shops... That helped us a lot because a lot of people realised that this is not a 2 square meter matter, but the start of a muslim ghetto almost in the centre of our capital city.

The next thing the parties did was to file in the petition and wait for the mayor to approve it. It was quite amazing that our left wing mayor did approve it, but we heard later in the statement that we shall never collect enough signatures in one month and even if we do that she will take the petition first to the constitution court and ask if this petition is valid and isn't against civil rights.

Well here B&H Slovenia came into play and stormed out in front of the local administrative units and started to gather the signatures, which was quite slow because you have to go with the person inside and wait with them to perform the bureaucratic process of signing, this took about 5 minutes for every signature. A lot of comrades came to help and people from other nationalistic parties too, it was quite a lot of work but we managed to gather 12,000 signatures, this is 5% of Ljubljana's population. We had quite some trouble from the left wing and the muslims themselves, no real threat except for one muslim that stole 100 signatures from the gatherer, we got these back, the muslim got a beating and we gave him to the authorities. The local administrative didn't help us, on every other petition gathering the gatherers were inside the offices, or had a stall where they gave free stuff to the people signing... well we had all this prohibited which shows the mayor's influence on the issue.

At the end we succeeded and people from B&H Slovenia carried the 12,000 signatures to the mayor. The press took coverage of the thing and for the first time there were some positive thoughts from the media on the B&H and skinheads.

The petition is still in the constitution court waiting for approval and there is more than a 50% chance it will not pass, if it passes then we have a lot more work to do, so we win the referendum. Still, even if the petition will be thrown in the trash we have done quite a lot. We've shown our people that we do care about our nation and even the media couldn't say otherwise, we've shown that we're working people and we don't hide or fall back and we've shown to ourselves that some things still can be accomplished by politics.

This was not just a war against the mosque, but a war against the government, the left wing and all civil rights groups. We showed them that there are a lot of people here that believe in their national identity and culture and that they don't want foreigner crap!

German police raid 300 patriots in a crack down on Music of the Resistance... Questions to be asked and lessons to be learned

German police raided the homes of more than 300 people on Wednesday 24th March whom they suspect of posting neo-Nazi music files on the internet for others to download, the Federal Crime Office said in a statement.

Police said the raids followed nationwide investigations into 342 people who had posted songs by skinhead bands on the internet. The songs contained lyrics inciting racial hatred, the crime agency said.

Police said they would carry out 333 raids by the end of Wednesday at the homes of people who had posted songs on a music sharing website. Inciting racial hatred is more than just a petty crime, said Federal Crime Office President Joerg Ziercke. Skinhead music groups create an enemy image and help propagate extreme right ideas.

Inciting racial hatred, displaying Nazi emblems like the Swastika and performing the stiff-armed Hitler salute used under Adolf Hitler are crimes punishable by imprisonment in Germany, the country which carried out the Holocaust. The Federal Crime Office started clamping down on internet trading of music inciting neo-Nazis to hate and attack Jews and foreigners in 2001

These raids on private homes in Germany raise serious questions for all involved in any way in the music of the resistance, for example; if it really was the violent nature of the lyrics that upset the State as they say, are they also raiding the homes of millions of downloaders who listen to gangsta rap, songs which sing about gang murder, glorify rape and sexual deviancy on women? Will we see legions of wiggers and blacks being charged? And what about those who sing about drug abuse and make it fashionable? Pushing kids to the evil dealers and into the squalid drug world, which leads to crime in order to pay for their addictions, and in many cases death.

More ominous is the question of how the German police built up their raid lists, it is unlikely they carried out a monster street survey of every German town and city asking 'Do you listen to/enjoy/download neo-Nazi music? If so please fill in your name and address here...' More likely is that the State have developed software that enables them to trace the identities of people conducting such online transactions, and are using this data to compile lists of the addresses of subscribers to the domestic, school, or office dial-up or DSL, services which are used to download music and are using these lists to conduct their raids.

We all know the lengths the German authorities go to silence the voice of truth, but what next? Will we see raids on people who download books or people that read this magazine that they don't agree with? No doubt we shall see shortly, and remember, what starts in the Fatherland usually travels around Europe, so be careful out there comrades.

Blood and Honour New Zealand Report

Greetings comrades from New Zealand.

Well since our first report in issue 27 we have received a tremendous amount of support from other B&H divisions around the globe, we would like to say thank you to every one who has contacted us with support and wished us well. This is much appreciated and helps us to move forward. Due to a number of requests we will have some supporter shirts made up soon, we are still deciding on a design but when finished they will look great, because of our small numbers and very limited financial support they are taking a little longer than we had hoped but they shouldn't be too far away. 2004 has started off a little slow for us but we will be making improvements soon, we have had regular meetings and events with comrades from out of town with everyone willing to travel when they can, we are organising a meeting with brothers from all across NZ and hope this will be a good event, although we are a small country it is still hard for some members who have families and work commitments to travel so we will be looking at a place that suits everyone.

Once again we were lucky enough to have our friend Johnny from Switzerland here to spend the Christmas period with us. He traveled throughout the country staying with B&H and Hammerskin members. Unfortunately our New Years party wasn't very big but was still a great night of comradeship and a chance for us to learn a little more about our brothers in Europe, we can't wait until the next one. p.s customs got all his gear before he got here. Recently we and some other pro white activists were hit by some e-mail viruses, this was very frustrating as they were good ones which resulted in my computer getting over 1000 viruses, it ended up having to be taken to a technician. These leftist pricks who are so scared to meet us face to face and who instead have to hide behind a computer screen all day and night seem to think that pathetic things like sending us e-mail viruses is going to change anything. Unfortunately, we will probably never know who these freaks are but rest assured if we ever find out they will learn the hard way why they should have spent their spare time learning how to fight.

On a brighter note we are trying to set up a web site for ourselves and will let everyone know when this is ready. With a list of support and contacts growing all the time we are really heading in the right direction and the future looks brighter for a united movement in NZ and around the world.

Hail Blood and Honour

Blood & Honour Finland

Greetings from the north! On 13th of March our local B&H Kouvola chapter had a small party at their local clubhouse. There was two bands playing. Mistreat was the other one, what was quite obvious, cause they are from this southeastern town of Kouvola. This was their second time on a stage with their new drummer Paul, who's usually seen as a drummer of Section88. But now that he spends a lot of his time in Finland and Mistreat has been suffering from lack of the drummer, they took Paul in their ranks for the Estonian Independence Day gig in February. After one practise they went on the stage in Tallinn, the capital of Estonia. Paul played with no mistakes at all and convinced the other Mistreat and they asked Paul to become their regular drummer and he agreed. The other band in Kouvola was a new one, called White Minority. They come from the central Finland, the town of Jyväskylä. It was the first time they played live ever, and it's pretty hard to say anything about them yet. This is due to the fact that their singer is in the army right now, and he couldn't get that weekend off from his duties. So it was only three other band members playing with no vocals at all. White minority played a few songs and the music sounded good, but it's hard to see their full potential before the whole crew is showing what they've got. Hopefully they can make it to the next event.

Two other Finnish local B&H chapters have opened their web site. Eastern Finland's B&H web site is hosted by the skinheads of Joensuu. Their web site address is www.joensuuskinks.com. The other one is central Finland's web page, hosted by Jyväskylä skins. Their web site address is www.jklskins.com. B&H SF main web site is also in the new address. Now you can find us from the address www.bhsuomifinland.com

Our security's Lede won this second world powerlifting championship in a row last December in Austria. Next weekend there is a powerlifting European championship qualifying competition in Tampere, central Finland. Three B&H SF security members are taking part.

B&H Rumania reports:

bhromania@hotmail.com OP 31 CP 28, Bucharest, RUMANIA

Our official magazine "vOInta!" reached its 5th issue in March. It's still written entirely in Rumanian, but by the time you read this, English version should be out, 32 A5 professionally printed pages with coloured covers, featuring local chronicles of the last two years, in-depths interviews with our comrades from the Dutch division, Platoon 14 and Sokyra Peruna, history article about Rumania's greatest king ever, Stefan of Moldavia, and a poster with Marshal Antonescu who led our Army against the Bolsheviks. You can get it from your local distributors or directly from our address below. This winter we continued to aid unfortunate kids in our country and kept donating history and movement books to a school library from a Moldavian village on a regular basis. To help further our campaign, we decided to release a CD sampler which profits will be given to poor families with kids here in Rumania, sponsor a trip of pupils from the school we are in contact with, to Stefan the Great's grave as this year it's 500 years since his death, and also lend a hand to family of Denis from KOLOVRAT, who is jailed in Prague. So far, the following bands confirmed their contribution: Red, White & Black (ex. Platoon 14), Sokyra Peruna, Brigade M, Kolovrat, PanzerJager and No Surrender. We're looking for special songs about motherhood, children, family etc., so no usual skinhead themes like beer, fights etc. So please make a donation, be it a song or even money. If you want to send clothes, toys etc., please write first for exact delivery information.

Dutch Blood and Honour Report

While most European countries are fighting against the pressure from the government and police, the Dutch division is mostly faced with problems inside the scene.

It seems that a strong united brotherhood is not possible in the Netherlands at present.

Since the beginning of the NS Skinhead scene in Holland there hasn't been a real sense of unity and it seems that it's really hard to organise all the groups in the Netherlands to move in the same direction together.

It started in the 80s when our only Dutch right-wing political group split, and also after a hippy and a black were killed by skinheads. After those murders a lot of skinheads became inactive for the movement and started to hang around in little groups.

In the 90s it was also hard to organise a good brotherhood, and now in 2004 it still seems very hard to get one. But we are now on the good way, there are a lot of good contacts between all the little groups in Holland, a lot of skins and other NS people from the HOU KONTAKT (keep touch) are also more involved in Blood and Honour than in the past. So hopefully soon we will have a gig in Holland, because there is really good beginnings of a real unity from all the little groups here.

The main reason in Holland that since the No Remorse gig there hasn't been a big gig here is the problem with the aliens who tried to ban all the gigs and so on, but we are on the good way so hopefully soon there is a good organised gig.

The Dutch division want to congratulate Fer and Nath on the birth of Danielle, another BH baby is born.

Dutch Division

Hungary

The scene in Hungary is quite healthy and there are more and more young people attending events. Nowadays there are about 600 hardcore skinheads and more than 3000 supporters.

The best organised group, Veres Becsület works as a registered cultural organisation. As it is a legal formation it can organise gigs and marches with the permission of the authorities. It means that on V&B gigs there are no need for secret arrangements because everybody knows the place of the event. Of course the Hungarian branch of Blood and Honour does also it's best in organising gigs and another group, Veres Kard (Bloody Sword) which was formed last year, unites the eastern regions of the country.

On February 13th is the Day Of Honour. That day in 1945 our army, after hard fights in the countryside, fighting hand in hand with German soldiers, had to get back to Budapest to protect it from the red army. The last fortress of the German SS and Hungarian SS volunteers was the Castle of Buda. After long fights the soviet army enclosed the castle, so our soldiers decided not to surrender but to break out. Of course they could not overcome the huge number of the enemy, so the red scum murdered them.

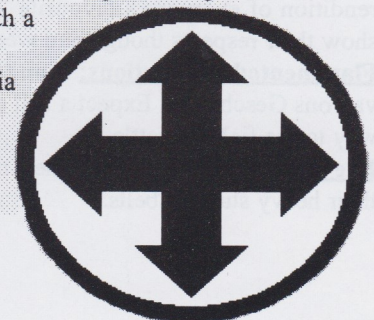

In the communist regime it was forbidden to remember the Day Of Honour, but since the regime fell in 1989 we make memorials for it. The last memorial took place in 1999, but the police banned the gig following the remembrance. So there was 4 years of silence. Last year the V&B decided to organise a march in the castle but the authorities did not allow it, at least they let the march happen, not in the castle but at a square by the parliament building. Of course there was a big fuss about the march in the media. All the jews and reds were protesting against it, how can such an event take place. The Community of Jewish Youth in Budapest organised an anti-demonstration at the same time in the same square. That cold day of February there were about 300 nationalists on one side and more than 1000 scum on the other side, separated by 100 policemen and a wide cordon. The fear of the police of trouble made no sense. All the 300 nationalists stood as one, like soldiers, remembering the honourable event, listening to speeches and acoustic music. There was also a tape playing the song

Son of Britain by Saga while the scum on the other side were shouting and throwing snowballs, one red haired jewboy was waving an israeli flag. They did not stop shouting even when we were singing out national anthem. There was no trouble.

Even the leftist media had to admit that it was the jewish side who's behaviour was foolish.

This year too the government did not allow us to march in the castle in remembrance of our heroes. So the remembrance took place at the Square of Heroes in the capital. Of course the police were well prepared, they were placing cordons around us. It was a great surprise that the crowd was much bigger than last year. There were about 700 skins and old nationalists, also comrades from Germany, Czech Republik, Serbia and Bulgaria came to the event. While the crowd were gathering we were listening to old Hungarian and German army songs. After that the crowd marched in four lines across the square to the grave of the unknown soldier and listened to speeches from prominent members of the Hungarian skinhead and nationalist movement, giving honour for the fallen heroes. In the first line there were flagbearers with old Hungarian flags and one holding a German flag with an iron cross. After that, four people were holding a cross with a German SS helmet and put it to the grave. Then all the organisations were putting their wreaths of flowers to the cross. As the event was successful, without any trouble, the media did not show anything about the memorial, although, there were about 30 photographers.

Blood & Honour Scene News

Intimidation One: are presently under heavy investigation by the F.B.I. With any hate crime that happens within a 300-mile radius, brings them trouble no matter what. The evil forces of ZOG are even visiting family members in the area, stating that Intimidation One's music influences the kids in the area to commit federal hate crimes, and that they will bring them down, hard at any cost to get a prison sentence from 30 years to life. For the most part we live a subtle, quiet lifestyle, working & taking care of our families and children. I myself have not broken the law in 15 years. That is why our attorneys believe the government is targeting us, because of pressure from some of the European countries, who have banned me completely from their borders. Also the fact that we help raise thousands of dollars for POW based organizations, and people who have been targeted by their governments like Landser, the Order, and now us. If anyone wants to help with attorney's fees, or upcoming court costs, feel free to email us at: intimidationone@comcast.net. Thanks for your support! 88 Intimidation One.

Kolovrat: On 24 January 2004, Kolovrat played a successful gig in the Czech Republic with 350 comrades attending. From Czech, Poland, Slovakia and Germany. After the concert the band members travelled back to Moscow. Whilst the leader of the band decided to stay in Prague with his friends. 30th January 2004, at Prague's airport he was arrested after a random luggage search where the Czech police found some t-shirts and CDs that were later described as propaganda materials of the NS skinhead movement. Now Denis is in Czech prison waiting for trial. The investigation can take up to 3 years. If the justice Department finds Denis guilty, he can be imprisoned for 3-8 years. His crime propaganda and the support of a movement that claims oppression of human rights and freedoms and for the public performance of songs with racial hate lyrics at both Kolovrat gigs in the Czech Republic (August 2003 and January 2004). Czech comrades have opened a bank account to collect funds to pay for a good lawyer for Denis. All help is welcome:

Beneficiary: Zdenek Svamberg, Rakovskeho 3263, Praha 4 Modrany, 143 00 Czech Republic, account 51-1564570257.

Beneficiary's Bank: Komerční banka A.S., Pobočka Praha 4 Modrany, Sofijske namesti 3405/2, 143 00 Praha 4, Czech Republic. IBAN 029001000000511564570257.

In Moscow, Denis's family whom he solely supported consist of an old grandmother, his sick mother, young unemployed wife and 2-year-old daughter, who now all need your help. Kolovrat have decided to continue their activity and not to bury the band in the face of this oppression. At the moment, the band are practising for gigs and also studio work is going ahead to release a new CD, which will be a benefit release to raise funds for Denis and his family. A label to release this recording is wanted. 88

B&H: show your support to a comrade in need, and show why we carry the legend for the Blood and for our peoples Honour.

Operation Break the Chains: The ongoing fight to free the Order is reported to be going extremely well, those wishing to help the campaign and keep track of the ongoing fight can do so at www.FreeTheOrder.net mail to: Focalp@aol.com

Landser: The Lunikoff Verschworung (The Lunikoff Conspiracy), you can't keep a good National Socialist down, despite all the attempts by the German Government to silence our German brothers, the members of the Fatherlands most hated band who have stayed true during the trial have recorded a completely legal cd, Zog is pissed off and there's nothing they can do, 15 tracks of defiance and a must for all in the resistance, show support to comrades who lead the way with words and actions!

Celtic Warrior: after a quiet 03 the Welsh boys hit back with two appearances in the capital at the London Edge and Violent Storm.

Sword of Truth: is the name of a new Rac-project by Steelcapped Strength bassplayer Dieter and Stormwolf/Kwelhekse drummer Surtur. Straight in the face old English styled R.A.C is what you'll get and the lyrics will be none the less! A studio visit has already produced 5 songs on disc with only the lead guitar left to complete.

Stormwolf: started off the new year by appearing on the bill of the Section88/Celtic Warrior/Warhammer gig in Flanders, however the skies have darkened at the moment. The band unfortunately had to cancel their appearance at the Violent Storm Memorial (for which once more their apologies to the organisers) and will continue without their guitarist! They also finished the second recording session for their debut cd, which proved to be far better than the initial effort, which will contain aside from the 10 songs they recorded also some bonus tracks from the first recording session and some live tracks! They are now on the lookout for a new guitarist in order to be able to promote the cd at it's best! For contact:

Cormanthor88@hotmail.com

Squadron: The members have met and could be reuniting for a few shows in 2004, unfortunately a promised appearance and rendition of everyone's favourite R.I.P never materialised at the recent VS Memorial, two members were in attendance to show their respects though and were sure all would love to see this classic outfit in operation once again.

Flammentod Productions: from Germany will in short time release a pro-tape version of the Elfenbloed demo Voor den Eer van ons Geschied... Expect a full colour booklet and half an hour of NS blackmetal raging by like a platoon of Panzer on the way to the field of battle Eye of Odin: have changed their name to Woden after Brad moved on and have now had two blinding appearances under their heavy studded belts.

Thuringian Pagan Madness: B&H Vlaanderen have managed to secure the NS blackmetal cult gods Absurd to appear onstage on the 29th May with Warage from France, Totenburg from Germany and B&H Vlaanderen band Kwelhekse as support! For more info concerning whereabouts contact Vlaamslegioen@yahoo.co.uk

Kwelhekse: Surtur and Kaiser are putting down the final arrangements to the new songs in order to enter the studio fully prepared. No style changes, same hypnotising mid-tempo riffs although a more bombastic touch has been implemented. They also found 2 sessionmembers in order to fulfill some gigs this year in the person of Noctogor from Urzamoht (vocals) and good ol' Robby from Stormwolf that will (literally) torment the guitar

Brutal Attack: played a blinder in January in their homeland soil of South London and have a gig to the Ukraine lined up in May, which will be another first for any B&H band from Britain.

Extreme Hatred: are all set to record their 3rd album within the next few months

Those Opposed: recently played a show in Pennsylvania, USA. The so-called H8 state which was unfortunately shut down by the Local, State and Federal Police.

Section 88: the cd is going down a storm we hear and the boys have continued gigging tirelessly, Mark from the Central division has now joined the chubby twins Mick and Will on bass.

Endloser: together with Kampfhandlung from the Fatherland will soon release a split album on PC-Records with the new vocalist and band founder Andreas.

Warhammer: after a breathtaking re-emergence on the B&H scene domestically and on Mainland Europe for B&H Flanders, the band has gone into an enforced rest, let's hope it's not for too long.

Children Of The Reich: Undying Loyalty CD is out now on Imperium Records (www.thulepublications.com). This CD is a project featuring 2 members of Platoon 14.

Aufbruch: from Mannheim are recording four new songs. Two Oi! tributes and two of their own. To be included on two different CD samplers. Aufbruch will also be going into the studio for their third album at the end of the year.

Pureblood: have continued gigging monthly in the U.K and are building a good following all ready with each outing they are getting better and better, the band has just agreed to record two tracks for an up and coming compilation and have begun work on their cd offering.

Platoon 14: have unfortunately called it a day. They still have a 7 record coming out though called, Things I Hate EP. It'll be on Imperium Records. The vinyl is completed, but Imperium is just waiting for the covers were informed.

Legion of St George: Out of the Rubble...Comes Revenge was finished in January and all is now in the hands of Rampage, 13 songs we are told no covers. A few unofficial copies are doing the rounds and the general feel is its another belter.

Deathshead: and the new German Teutonic Death Metal band Purification have a new split, which is out now.

Block 11: have released their new CD entitled Europe Calls on the French label Pit Records (www.pit-records.com). With 11 tracks covering numerous sounds from ballads to Oi! and from hard rock to metal. Samples are available on the Block 11 website (www.block11.com)

Strikeforce U.K: the newest band from the North East have consolidated their great start at White Christmas with a magnificent follow up at the VS Memorial, with a vibrant militant scene and bands like this the NE looks like the place to be!

Final War: from America are at this moment finishing up their second full-length album We Speak the Truth to be released by Panzerfaust Records in May.

T.M.F: debut single will shortly be available entitled Hate Edge, those who have been fortunate to hear it are already saying it will be the best release of the year!

Youngblood: The classic and very first RAC band from O.C. is to record a second CD. Together with their first show shall also be their first release in over 15 years! With the exception of Lee on vocals Youngblood has an entire new line up Loyalty: have sadly chucked in the towel, their cd is still doubtful if it will see the light of day, but Loyalty's demise is Pureblood's gain, with sticks man Griff changing stools to the West London outfit. One plus is the release of a split single with Retaliator titled England Expects.

The Stormer Zine: issue 6 (April 2004) is out, an English zine of 24 pages containing Nordfront, Chevrotine and Blitzkrieg interviews, Der Panzerbar zine review, articles and much more at 4 Euro s, wholesale prices for distributors are available, contact: nx18@virgilio.it, www.thestormer.tk.

Stigger: recently played a successful P.O.W fundraiser for two local lads in Durham, who have received jail sentences for their opposition to ZOG S multi racial experiment. John from Nemesis also played. The gig was a broad church event and was sponsored by the local NF branch. We all wish Scott and Kevin our heart felt best.

Nuremberg: Siempre Fieles is the first release from one of Argentina s most popular bands, featuring 12 songs in your typical old school RAC style. Released by ITP from Germany and limited to 1000 copies all numbered by hand.

Viking: her current release Leco della Battaglia is an excellent cover album. With music and songs of the most famous Fascist songs from that era. Containing 11 songs re-arranged like folk ballads. It is also a data CD when used in a computer has extras of flash presentations, original sounds, lyrics and song history, with directories and pictures of Viking herself and Mussolini. Viking is currently working hard on some new songs with the aim for a new album release in early 2005.

Nordfront: are presently promoting their Final Stand project. By using poetry with good nationalistic ideas and thought combined with music. After some hard work making it all come together, a Final Stand full-length album was released on V7 Versand. More info can be found on the project website <http://www.finalstand.de.cx/>

Rebel Hell: After a great CD release are demonstrating their live musical talents with shows and are currently playing in the Annual Hitler s Birthday Bash in Detroit.

NPD: Attack on the NPD headquarters in Berlin on the 20th of April. A car with fuel filled tires was parked in front of the house and was ignited by the anti fascists. 3 men were caught and a witness identified one of them.

Senfheads: the very active German band from the mid nineties is again rehearsing for an imminent comeback.

Outlaw: have recorded 2 songs for the compilation European Glory

Frankfurt: the German city Frankfurt has been defined as the place with the highest standard of living in the Fatherland..... hard to believe! because it is also the city with the highest percentage (27,8%) of immigrants!

Barbarossa: 3rd production of Barbarossa-Records: Agnar - Rufe aus alter Zeitrock ballads with great intelligent lyrics. Check out: Barbarossa Records, PF 11 31, 06517 Sangerhausen, Germany or at www.barbarossa-records.de.vu. Also other great stuff available

Ostara Magazine: will be out in May. To contact one of the best and long running WP Mags from the Fatherland write to: E.M., PF 10 12 25, in 06512 Sangerhausen, Germany

Isenbeck: the German Label are planing a 10inch compilation EP with bands like Final War and Tsyrlia.

Division Staufen: are a new band from the South of Germany. Have a look at their homepage: www.division-staufen.de
- New Label from the South of Germany can be reached under: www.gjallarhorn-klangschmiede.com. They also republished the CD United Blood- Road to Victory

Chemnitz still Rocking the Reds: the new cd of Desolated (Slipknot style with racial lyrics) and Tattooed Motherfuckers (British Oi Punk at its best) out soon! Foier Frei: the Chemnitz based fanzine #18 is out. This time in A6 format....so it is musical resistance for every pocket of your clothes....haha! Leftwing writer G nther Grass claims that the German town L beck should reconstruct a church into a mosque! This would be a great gesture for the candidature of the town for the competition capital of culturewell, this is culture of today!

Retaliator: have finished recording and mixing their next cd When Duty Calls , 11 songs of pure skinhead rock, to be released later on in the year.

Crusader: the first Croatian NS webzine can be found at <http://www.hrcrusader.net/>

Kremator: With their current CD A Replay of the Final Solution out, Kremator are already writing new material for their next CD.

Rampage Productions: After three successful releases Rampage Productions has not been idle. The next project to hit the streets is the long awaited fourth release from West London's Legion of Saint George. The CD will be entitled " out of the rubble comes revenge" and will be available soon. There are some other new projects in the pipeline also. These include the English release of Hungarian band Bonded by Blood, a first CD release by the Belgian band Stormwolf and a forthcoming release from the Canadian band Stonehammer. A final CD release from English band Bulldog Breed is also being worked on presently. The Rampage web page is experiencing some difficulties as of late with somebody continuously trying to hack into it. We have some ideas concerning who these people are but as of yet no concrete proof. It is hoped that these problems will be sorted soon and the web site will be up and running trouble free as of then. In the mean time if you require CD's, T-shirts, magazines or just to be placed on our mailing list please contact the P.O. Box at the above address. Until next time, cheers. Rampage Team.

American Standard: from Las Vegas have their debut release For My Nation on imminent release on Panzerfaust. Featuring Tom from Final War on drums.

Crusade: Since December 2003 Crusade have been busy recording their 4th album. This has recently been completed and is set for release this summer on Thule Publications. This album features Al on vocals, guitars and drums with Will on bass and features our own style of power oi! We will be quiet on the gig front as family matters take priority-congratulations again to Al! Cheers to Graham for recording the cd and to B&H UK for all the support.

Nemesis: at long last seem to have solved their drummer shortage. Veteran nationalist drummer Sticks has agreed to drum for the lads and began practising in February.

Whitelaw: Have been busy the past few months working on new material for a new CD album. Recording starts in May on the bands own label Rope Records. With currently nine brand new songs completed and a few more to finish off. The much-anticipated album is sure to be full of soon to become classic Whitelaw anthems. The cd will be called (Kick the Reds) In, after the title of one of their new songs. There is also a song, which will be included on the cd, which was written by Ian Stuart complete with music, by him. The track was never used but it is typical Skrewdriver in its sounding. It's called (I Dont Know). Benny was given the lyrics by a leading Skrewdriver Security friend of his after Ian died so the Whitelaw lads decided to use it as it was a good song when they played it during a practice. It was like finding a lost song that was hidden never to be heard. Also We re Coming for You is also being re-released, as no one can seem to get hold of it. After the band as well as other bands found out that the label on which it recorded upon was the product of some deviant scoundrel. So things should hopefully all go well this time.

Defiance: have a full line up and all though they declined the chance to blood themselves at St Georges day have guaranteed they will be playing any time soon after.

Sleipnir: are to release a new CD in May/June time. Also they shall be recording some new ballads together with John from Nemesis and Stigger for a compilation album, with a new line up we hear.

Conquest: Steve has assured us will play shortly, the original line up is firing to go, Andy drummer is just awaiting the finish to a few domestics and the band should be playing in June/July!

Avalon: have now tucked a few live shows under their belts since returning to the live arena. After Successful showings, most notably in Espana & the Violent Storm Memorial they have now decided to put the emphasis on recording. Other than a few shows pencilled in for later in the year the band shan't be committing to any other concerts. Some recordings are already recorded, 1 track of a Skrewdriver favourite is ready for a compilation while 5 tracks for a split with Czech band Beowulf is imminent. Work will soon begin on their full length CD Hate Through The Chosen Eye which will be released through the American Thule network. Avalon also have a new Reborn t-shirt available along with a number of POW support items. You can contact them by visiting their website at www.avalonuk.org.uk

Brigade M: have reformed under the name Westland Rebels, at their first gig for a Dutch political group they valiantly helped in the defence of four Slovenian girls attacked by some gutless pricks from Flanders who presently stain the scene in Holland. The Split-CD Diets-Deutsche Kameraden by Brigade M, Stromschlag and Schutt und Asche was declared illegal in the so-called democratic BRD in November 2003 and since then was no longer for sale. But Brigade M have managed to get a new load of copies that are available for 10,- (12,- / S 15,- inkl. postage). Mail us for whole sale prices, trades are welcome. Brigade M, Postbus 84, NL - 2170 AB Sassenheim. brigadem@hotmail.com

Red White and Black: consists of members from Platoon 14, Definite Hate, and The Anti-Semites (a short lived band that few people heard YET). We've already recorded for 3 compilation CD's, including a Skrewdriver Tribute CD to be released on Moloko-Plus Records in Germany. We'll also will be in the studio April 14th to record 3 songs, (Crossed Hammers EP) for a limited picture record 7 on North X Records in Germany. We'll be in the studio again May 12, 13, & 14th to record our debut full length that is still untitled to be released on Imperium Records. Also, we're hoping to be in England this September for the ISD Memorial gig.

John from Nemesis: has played Germany, Spain and England twice, as well as a bothy gig in the Scottish Highlands and the annual Saint Andrew's day gig in Broxburn.

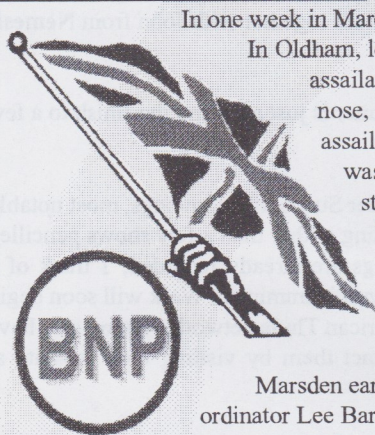

Les Villains: have been around for many years in the scene and have survived quite a few line-up changes. Only vocalist Suck and bass player Oliver remain from the original line-up and are now joined by the Steel capped Strength bass player on guitars, a brand new drummer and also a second guitarist to make the sound as solid as a rock! After many struggles the band is still going strong though and their strength of will has resulted in the first full-cd released through Pure Impact records titled Les Derniers Rebelles. 14 songs in their distinctive sound that mixes Oi! together with RAC all presented in the French language. The sound is very pure and clear, which makes it a pleasure to listen to and aside from the more known songs like Belgique Hooligans and Trou du cul, the band also managed to add some brand-new songs, which even outdo the older stuff!! Jet Set Skinhead (condemning the fact that people make big money out of the skinhead scene) is a kick-ass up-tempo song with a chorus that gets you going immediately as well as Michael, which deals about our I-wanna-be-white-but-I-remain-one-sick-bastard Michael Jackson! Also 3 sublime covers of Combat84, Warzone and Bunker 84 are featured so this is definitely a release worth the buy! For contact: les_villains@yahoo.fr The band will be appearing in Germany on the 10th of April with the Barking Dogs amongst others!

Nemesis: have been kept busy over the last wee while, since the release of "The Forgotten Soldier", we have recorded the German / Scottish friendship c.d with the great German band Sleipnir, which consists of 12 tracks 6 tracks from Nemesis and 5 from Sleipnir and 1 track with split vocals called "Freundshaft", this c.d is a mix of white power rock n roll and ballads. and is available from www.wolfzeit.net Also recorded was the 1 track for the landser tribute / fundraising CD (White covers) which was a cover version of the landser song "Ian Stuart". (if you can get hold of this c.d buy it as it goes towards helping the court cost etc of the band members currently serving time in ZOG'S gulags) On the gig front we have been quite due to recurring drummer problems, but we managed a few songs at the St Andrews day gig in Scotland with Andy (warlord) on drums. We also played the Violent Storm memorial this year, when Al (crusade) kindly stepped in last minute, (cheers for that Al). John has also been busy on the ballad front, playing at the Rudolf Hess march in Germany last year, which was a fantastic honour, John also played in Spain at the memorial concert for 3 young comrades who died in a car crash 3 years ago and more recently played in the Czech Republic. As for the future, due to personal commitments involving John the band should be out of action on the gig front till the end of the year, but there are plans for a future ballad album collaboration with Marco (Sleipnir) in the middle of the year and also a folk c.d which will also be released at the end of the year, involving members of Nemesis and other Musicians, consisting of traditional British folk songs with a modern sound. In the meantime we will be continuing the fight for the 14 words and supporting our Highlander division of Blood and Honour. Anyone wishing to contact us, drop us a line at :-P.O. BOX 2206, GLASGOW, G71 5XD, SCOTLAND. or email us at: nemesis@highlander.uk.net

The British National Party

2004 presents the silent majority of the British people with an opportunity which is unprecedented in recent times. Hundreds of council seats are being contested around the country in June this year. This, combined with the elections for the European Parliament will allow the law abiding, decent, hard working people of Britain an opportunity to ditch the Old Gang and vote for the only party that will make a difference. Our ancestors gave their lives to ensure that we can live today. We are not asking for such a sacrifice but we need your help. Britain needs you to answer the nation's call.

State Violence To Silence the Truth?

In one week in March two prominent local BNP officials were hospitalised by thugs in political punishment beatings. In Oldham, local unit organiser Mick Treacy had his elbow fractured in a racially motivated attack by a black assailant, and the following evening was attacked by a white Labour party supporter, suffering a broken nose, black eyes, bites to his ear and face and having a cigarette stubbed out on his forehead. Both assailants have since been arrested. Two evenings later, a key member of Bradford BNP, Andrew Sykes, was grabbed from behind without warning by a powerfully built man who locked him in a military-style restraint holding onto his windpipe while a second man punched him repeatedly in the face. The first man then beat him in the back and kidneys as he fell to the ground. The very professional attack lasted no more than fifteen seconds, but the victim needed hospital treatment and suffered a number of injuries. The violence of the attack, the involvement of two well-built, well-dressed, quietly-spoken men, the calm way that it was carried out and the whispered warning to stop organising for the BNP, makes it a carbon copy of a similar assault on BNP councillor Adrian Marsden early last year. The same has to be said about the burglary on the home of the BNP Legal Team co-ordinator Lee Barnes, in which items such as expensive Hi-Fi equipment were left untouched, with the only things taken being BNP legal files. No one has so far been arrested, let alone brought to justice, for either attack.

Elections

The BNP has continued to contest elections around the country and results are pointing to a fantastic result in June. In Cheshire Mike Beardshaw polled 12% and pushed the Tories into fourth place in a by-election in Crewe South in April. In Ipswich a stunning vote of 15% on a huge turnout of 60% has brought the BNP right to the centre of local politics in rural Suffolk and the BNP's candidate in the Abberd Ward by-election for Calne Town Council in North Wiltshire polled 18.5% and pushed the Labour Party candidate into 4th place.

European Ties

With the coming Euro elections, BNP delegations have visited the European Parliament with views to joining the Front Nationale and Vlaams Blok in a pan European group to fight for Europe. The BNP has also been honoured by the visit and attendance at BNP functions of Front Nationale leader Jean Marie Le Penn.

Street Action

16th February saw two demonstrations take place in Central London to campaign for justice for the family of 19 year old Gavin Hopley who was murdered 12 months ago in Oldham, for being white. The first demo was held outside the CRE. This Government funded organisation is only interested in highlighting the causes of ethnic minorities and has NEVER campaigned for white victims of discrimination and racist violence. The second demo was in Kings Cross outside the head office of the National Union of Journalists, because the NUJ has tried to impose a blackout on Gavin's racist murder. Our time is now, all must act before Labour's asylum policy changes the face of our Britain forever. For Freedom, Security and Identity.

DEATHSHEAD

Warrior Folk lulled, into a false sleep manipulated by the masters of deceit nations corpse lies rotting in the bright sun feast of the jackals has only just begun....

...And indeed it has. The masters of white power thrash metal are back with a bang, with their follow up album to Onslaught, entitled Feast of the Jackals - 45 minutes of pure, in your face metal is what this album is all about. Leaving no stone unturned, Deaths Head's second CD covers various lyrical aspects regarding the world today, from the title track, written about the sickening evils of modern day Judaism with the ultra heavy chorus suck the spirit from our souls, glut themselves on blood and flesh, our folk die within their hold, as they grow fat upon our death, corruption spread by a demon breed, jackal spawn of lust and greed to the history of the Viking raiders, from the 1922 expedition to Coburg, and the finishing song paying a glorious tribute to the brave and noble Anzac's (Australian & New Zealand Army Corps) who sacrificed their lives for the motherland back in WW1. Recently back from a highly successful European tour, the Aussie death bangers have once again opened up a new door for the Nationalist music scene, spreading our message of white unity throughout the world with an album heavier than a 10 tonne hammer. With extremely intense guitar riffs and lead breaks (reminiscent of Slayer era Reign in Blood), intelligent and well educated lyrical content, and a tight, precise and heavily powerful rhythm section, Deaths Head have proven once again that they are most certainly at the forefront of the right wing metal scene. If you like you're music hard, fast and heavy, then this CD is definitely for you. Its available now from Panzerfaust Records, at your next local gig or contact them directly at PO Box 300, Nunawading LPO, Victoria, Australia 1313 OR E-mail deathsheadaust@hotmail.com We haven't spoken to the lads since issue 24, so were very happy to have the chance to catch up with our comrades across the sea, to talk about what's been going on.....

It's been a long time since we spoke to you lads. Can you tell us what you've been up to, and what you've been listening to lately?

Well, since the last time we spoke with B&H, we have released our second full-length cd Feast of the Jackals and had a brief tour of Europe, which was great, a real eye opener for us Aussie lads to be playing to some good-sized crowds. Sadly nothing very good. The new Landser cd is good and I enjoyed the English version released by Panzerfaust.

How has the new CD been received by fans?

Funnily enough because I believe it to be a superior recording. The new cd has not taken off as well as our first effort. Don't get me wrong we had plenty of good feedback, but I think the traditional skinhead audience are a bit put off by our more metal sound on this CD.

Your music is very straightforward heavy thrash metal, there's no doubt about that! How has this helped attract people other than skinheads towards the NS movement?

Well a lot of the metal listeners who have heard it are full of praise, especially the younger NS guys, though the skinhead/metalhead crossover has died off a little down under lately.

A while ago you played a few gigs in various European cities. Can you tell us a bit more about this?

We went over for three weeks in April last year and played some gigs in Germany, one in France and one in Switzerland. It was the first time we have been overseas as a band and we had a great time. Got a chance to play some good shows meet some great people and sample many a fine beer. It was fantastic to get a chance to experience some of what it is to have European heritage after spending our whole lives down under. The feel of the history of Europe is amazing. We hope to return one day.

Also you recorded a couple of tracks for a compilation cd. Have they been released yet, and on what label?

We have done a couple of things lately. We recorded a couple of Skrewdriver tracks for a tribute comp on a German label, couldn't say which one, we were just contacted by email and offered the recording costs so we said righto, or you could mean the tracks we recorded in Germany for the split with Purification, that was released just recently under much of a storm, we are very unhappy with the quality of the tracks and have had a few dramas with the label. Anyone who buys it for our tracks treat it as a rough preview of the new cd, we are going to properly re-record a couple of the good tracks.

How's the general WP/Skinhead movement in Australia these days? What are all the other WP bands up to?

Very, very quiet at the moment, everything seems to be in a bit of a lull. We are currently working on our new cd; most of the other bands are keeping quiet or mulling over various projects. I think things will be fairly mundane down here until the ISD gig this year. Time just seems to get away from you.

We have recently had the pleasure of listening to the Aussie ISD 2003 tribute cd. Whose idea was it to record this?

That was the brainchild of the Hammers and B&H here as we have a very close working relationship. We found out we could get a very good quality live recording for a fairly small outlay. We got a label on board: North X and all the bands agreed to donate all payments to the B&H coffers, which was a good boost, plus we thought it was the 10 year anniversary of Ian's death we wanted to do something special to make the date more memorable. Finally how many people round the world can get down here for an Aussie gig. we try to give you lot the next best thing.

Britain is still being swamped with 100,000s of non-white immigrants! Is Aussie still maintaining a strict immigration policy, or is she slowly giving in to the Zionists in the worldwide parliaments?

Nothing strict about it, muds are flooding in, it just seems like less as we have a smaller population, as a percentage we are as bad as anywhere. The Government just decided to up our refugee intake by 50% mostly from Africa and made it easier for immigrants to get Australian residency on the condition they move into regional areas. So basically the plan is to move coloured into the traditionally white country areas.....

So we can expect to see DH playing here in the Motherland?

As soon as someone can spring for the tickets we'll be there, were to damn poor to pay our own way, ha ha. Seriously though we would love to gig over there. There was some talk of us trying to make it there from Europe last year, but sadly time was too short.

Are there any final thoughts you'd like to pass onto our readers?

Cheers for the interview and hail all the B&H supporters over there. I'm not sure how many listeners we have over there but I know the lads who do are loyal, so keep it up. There's more good shit coming.
